OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS...
Northern Yorke Peninsula Health Service senior clinician Dr Dewald Behrens has gained Australasian College for Emergency Medicine accreditation as a primary supervisor, paving the way for Wallaroo Hospital to offer advanced emergency medicine training for rural generalist registrars. The move creates new opportunities for rural doctors and could help attract more medical staff to the region.

Price Tractor Pull

WE just wanted to take a moment to pass on our thanks and appreciation for such a wonderful event, held August 1 and 2.

It was our first time attending the YP Classic and Vintage Tractor Pull as a family, and we were absolutely blown away.

We travelled over an hour and a half to see what the event was like and, in hindsight, really wish we'd booked accommodation to stay and enjoy both days.

The entire event was incredibly family friendly and enjoyable, with such a great atmosphere.

One of the standout features for us, and I'm sure many other families would agree, was how affordable everything was.

From the stalls to the food vans, it was all very reasonably priced, which makes such a difference when attending as a family.

It is certainly something we'll be marking on our calendar for future years.

We are already planning to book a site at a local caravan park next time and make a full weekend of it.

We will also be spreading the word to friends and family about what a great event it is -- it deserves to be experienced by more people.

Congratulations to everyone involved in the organisation and running of the event.

We understand how much hard work goes into something of this scale, and it truly showed. The dedication and effort from their team absolutely paid off.

Well done on a fantastic and successful event, we can't wait to return in 2027!

Boat ramp fees

I CONGRATULATE the Barunga West Council for waiving boat ramp fees at Port Broughton.

It is something that the Yorke Peninsula Council should quickly copy.

We need to get tourists back in our towns and any incentive will help.

I know some senior fishers who have given it away because they cannot work out the online ticketing at the boat ramps since cash payment was removed on July 1.

Please make it cheaper and easier to get them back in our towns.

Extended patient care

RAMPING at our major public hospitals has nothing to do with ambulances.

It has nothing to do with Emergency Departments. The problem is deeper than that. Much deeper. It has everything to do with the system behind it.

Patients cannot get out of ambulances because the ED is full.

The ED is full because there are no beds in the hospital.

There are no beds in the hospital because there are a considerable number of long-stay patients who cannot go home. Their needs are beyond home care.

There are almost no aged care placements or other suitable care packages to make discharge a viable option.

So, they sit, occupying acute beds. This is no fault of the patient.

During the COVID-19 pandemic events, the empty old Wakefield Hospital was partly recommissioned for the expected overflow of admissions. It didn't happen, but the capacity was there.

The decommissioned RAH, before it was demolished, had a structure suitable for lower-level care.

Not all that capacity needed preservation for that function but, as hospital buildings, they had the fundamental facilities for extended patient care.

The government has missed two golden opportunities to provide a safety valve for the acute bed congestion problem. It's a big issue, but not glamorous.

Fix the extended care problem, and ramping will all but go away.

Government cuts

GOVERNMENTS are always boasting about budget surpluses.

All that means is they will spend less than the money they get, so they make cuts on everything they can get away with and hope no one notices.

Everything, that is, that affects us, not salaries for politicians, bureaucrats, and their multiple assistants.

I hope our hard-working members can get the city central polities to see that our overworked volunteers need more money.

Without these people, clubs would not work properly. Some people don't understand what they do in the clubs. They help rev up the players, make sure they have the water bottles filled, make sure they all in the right gear, get the players ready to play, help set up fields with trainings, make sure the balls are pumped up, etc. It's the small things like that – the things people forget about – that make these guys superheroes when volunteering, and they do it all because they love the club. These guys should be recognised more as, without them, there's no club. Just like at my son's club, they are there no matter what day of the week it is. No matter the rain, hail, shine or storms. No matter where we playing or training. We wouldn't have much of a team if it wasn't for volunteers doing things in the background and off field every week, every year.

OUR VIEW

Peninsula of plenty

WE ARE spoilt for choice for things to do on Yorke Peninsula in the coming weeks, with the 10-day GROUNDED YP Arts Festival starting on Friday, the Copper Coast Show this weekend, and the opening of the Vietnam War Memorial Walk at Edithburgh on Monday.

GROUNDED will offer more than 30 workshops, performances, events and exhibitions at 13 towns plus rural locations.

It is a fabulous opportunity to enjoy the creativity of the people who live among us and perhaps untap our own artistic energy by learning a new skill.

The Copper Coast Show at the Kadina Showgrounds also has an emphasis on hands-on experiences, and on keeping alive the skills and handcrafts that have been an essential part of country life.

The activities and displays are designed to encourage curiosity, learning and connection — and perhaps spark a new interest in showgoers of all ages and draw us away from those ubiquitous screens.

Monday, August 18, is Vietnam Veterans' Day in Australia, commemorating the Battle of Long Tan, and this year marks 50 years since the end of the Vietnam War.

Both these 1960s events will be honoured in a very special way by the opening of the Vietnam War Memorial Walk at Edithburgh, a labour of love led by two passionate local people,

The memorial walk will have an appropriately memorable opening, with former Governor-General of Australia, General the Honourable Sir Peter Cosgrove cutting the ribbon, a genuine Vietnam War era Huey helicopter flying in from New South Wales, and a concert featuring John Schumann, of I Was Only Nineteen fame.

The days are getting longer and warmer as we head towards spring — now is the time to get out, soak up inspiration and new experiences and learn about recent history that has shaped the country we live in today.

Vietnam War Memorial Walk official opening to honour service and sacrifice

THE Vietnam War Memorial Walk official opening in Edithburgh on Monday, August 18, is shaping up to be one of the biggest events in recent memory for southern Yorke Peninsula.

The event will include speeches from two high-profile guests — General the Honourable Sir Peter Cosgrove AK AC (Mil) CVO MC (Retd), former Governor-General of Australia, and Australian War Memorial director Matt Anderson PSM.

General Sir Peter John Cosgrove will officially declare the walk open, while Mr Anderson, the son of a National Serviceman and patron of the National Servicemen's Association, will also address the crowd.

There will be a genuine Vietnam-era Huey helicopter flying over, two luncheons, and a concert featuring John Schumann and the Vagabond Crew (ex-Redgum), which is very nearly sold out.

Representatives from national and state organisations will also attend the opening, to be held on the Edithburgh Golf Course, O'Halloran Parade.

The public is invited and asked to arrive at 10.30am before speeches start at 11am.

Parking will be available along the O'Halloran Parade foreshore drive, at the jetty, and on side streets, with limited accessible parking closer to the event marquee.

At the conclusion of the formalities, a luncheon at Edithburgh Sports Club will be open to the public.

This will also be a chance to get up close to the Huey helicopter, which will be parked on the oval for photo opportunities.

The event is being held on Vietnam Veterans' Day, which marks 50 years since the conclusion of the Vietnam War in 1975.

A memorial with personal meaning

For Port Moorowie couple Geoff and Louise Burt, the walk already holds deep personal meaning.

In 1968, veteran Geoff Burt spent 364 days in Vietnam during the conflict as a member of 3 RAR B Company 5 Platoon 2 Section. During that time, four of his close friends were killed in action.

With no specific memorial for Vietnam veterans on Yorke Peninsula, the Burts have long travelled to

Edithburgh from their home to lay flowers at the town's War Memorial on significant dates connected to those men.

"I don't want people to forget about those who served in Vietnam," Mr Burt said.

The opening of the memorial walk between Coobowie and Edithburgh, and the purpose-built seat the couple sponsored, is now, in Mr Burt's eyes, a significant memorial that will hold a special place in the hearts of his entire family.

Inspecting the seat in place last week, they were joined by project leads Roger Hogben and John Edwards.

As they shared stories, Mr Burt recalled how he originally came to enlist — "apparently if the surf's not what you expect, you head into the city with a friend and decide on the spot to drop into the recruitment office!"

Building the walk

Every unit that participated in the war is included in the 3.7-kilometre Vietnam War Memorial Walk, which stretches from Edithburgh to Coobowie along the Walk The Yorke trail and can be started from either end.

The memorial features 29 detailed laser-cut signs and a series of bench seats sponsored by project supporters. It was completed by local contractors earlier this month in time for the official opening.

The project is a labour of love for local Vietnam veteran Roger Hogben and community volunteer John Edwards, who received council approval to proceed and secured funding through the Australian Government Department of Veterans' Affairs Saluting Their Service Commemorative Grants Program and Veterans SA's Anzac Day Commemoration Fund.

Huey helicopter fly-over

A genuine Vietnam-era Huey helicopter will land on the golf course near the marquee at about 10.45am before flying over the event and parking at the oval.

The Iroquois H model Huey A2-703 served with 9 Squadron RAAF in Vietnam and later in operations across Australia, the southwest Pacific, Papua New Guinea and Indonesia. It is now maintained by the Historic Aircraft Restoration Society in New South Wales, and it is likely this will be the final time a Huey is flown to South Australia.

Concert finale

The day will finish with a commemorative concert, Behind the Lines: Australia at War in Words and Music, at Light Church, Edithburgh, from 2pm.

Presented by John Schumann and the Vagabond Crew, the performance blends music with narration by acclaimed actor Celine O'Leary, drawing on letters, poems, newspaper reports and rare images to tell stories of Australians at war.

Local band Cruizin' Blues will open the show.

Five new retirement units in Kadina

KADINA Community Hospital has approached Copper Coast Council to borrow $800,000 to assist with cash flow while it develops five new retirement units.

The group previously completed a similar development of four retirement units on Digby Street, Kadina, with the assistance of a loan through council. That project was successful.

The new units will be built at 7 Gawler Street, Kadina, and the $800,000 loan will be repaid over two years.

Wahlstedt Quality Homes, which was awarded the contract for the Digby Street units, has submitted pricing for the proposed Gawler Street development, according to council's August 6 agenda.

The agenda also stated that sale proposals had been provided by Wardle Co Real Estate, giving the board confidence the project was viable.

Mayor Roslyn Talbot told the August 6 meeting that council had supported the hospital's previous development.

"We helped them in this manner to build the Materne Estate, which has provided four homes for senior residents in the community — it has been a very good outcome," Mayor Talbot said.

"They (the proposed five units) do not, at this stage, have development approval."

The motion to provide in-principle support of the new project, moved by Councillor Peter Sims and seconded by Cr Brent Walker, was carried.

Aged care jobs

PORT Broughton aged care service Barunga Village is one of 16 organisations nationwide, and one of six in the state, chosen to deliver a federal initiative supporting job seekers.

WorkFoundations, funded through the Australian Government's Paid Employment Pathways Package, aims to improve job prospects for people facing complex barriers through structured support and paid work placements.

Running from July 2025 to June 2027, the program will assist 30 participants with tailored training, mentorship and wrap-around services, while fostering an inclusive workforce development at Barunga Village.

It is backed by $450,000 in grant funding.

"We are honoured to be selected as a WorkFoundations provider," Barunga Village chief executive Elizabeth Carroll said.

"This is a significant opportunity for us to address some of the critical workforce shortages in aged care while also making a real difference in the lives of people who have been excluded from traditional pathways into employment."

INDEPENDENT Narungga MP Fraser Ellis says he has been approached by the Liberal Party to rejoin their ranks at the upcoming state election.

Mr Ellis was elected as a Liberal MP to the seat of Narungga in March 2018, but voluntarily suspended his Liberal Party membership in February 2021 after it was alleged he made fraudulent claims for the Country Members Allowance.

In October 2021, Mr Ellis sought the Liberals' endorsement to run as a candidate for Narungga in the 2022 state election, but they declined and ran an endorsed candidate against him. Mr Ellis was successful as an independent.

Now, ahead of the March 2026 state election, Mr Ellis said the Liberals wanted him back.

"While it's flattering to be sounded out by Liberal Party members, I am clear that I was elected as an independent at the last election, and I intend to honour that commitment to the people of Narungga," Mr Ellis told the YP Country Times.

"We have made significant progress, and my focus is on completing the work we started, particularly in enhancing Narungga's healthcare system.

"We have collected almost 11,000 petition signatures and organised community forums with decision-makers on how to improve our local healthcare system.

"Now it is time for the Malinauskas government to act on the recommendations to ensure our healthcare system addresses the needs of Narungga."

Liberal state director Alex Hyde said Mr Ellis "was informed as a courtesy that nominations were open for the Liberal preselection for the seat of Narungga."

"All applications we receive are treated with the same level of scrutiny and may be accepted or rejected," Mr Hyde said.

"At the closure of this process, we did not receive a nomination from Mr Ellis.

"We will be working through the usual democratic process which enables grassroots members in Narungga to select their candidate."

Liberal preselection nominations for Narungga closed on July 31.

In July 2024, Mr Ellis was found guilty on four charges of deceit in relation to improperly claiming the Country Members Allowance, occurring between April 2018 and June 2020 and totalling $2738, and acquitted of 19 counts.

The Director of Public Prosecutions has lodged an appeal against the 19 acquittals, and Mr Ellis has appealed the four convictions.

Mr Ellis voluntarily repaid $42,130 in claims, stating some may have been made in error, before the Independent Commissioner Against Corruption investigation was announced in 2020.

A date for Mr Ellis's sentencing has not yet been set, pending the outcome of the appeals.

SELF-SUFFICIENT...
Narungga MP Fraser Ellis says he will remain committed to serving as an independent, despite being approached by the Liberal Party ahead of the 2026 state election.

Algal bloom inquiry submissions open

Sarah Herrmann
JOURNALIST

SUBMISSIONS are open for the Australian Senate's inquiry into the algal bloom, with professional and recreational fishers, tourism operators, business owners and affected members of the public invited to participate.

The committee wants to know how the algal bloom has impacted your business or livelihood, health and wellbeing, and/or mental and social state, and if you have any ideas about how this could be handled by governments at all levels.

Submissions should begin with a short introduction about yourself or the organisation you represent, highlight your own perspective or experience, be concise, and include relevant images you have taken.

Submissions close August 22; for more information, visit aph.gov.au/Parliamentary\_Business/Committees/Senate/Environment\_and\_Communications/AlgalBloom48P.

The final report from the committee, as a result of the inquiry, is due by October 28.

Oyster reef restoration

Fifteen hectares of new oyster reefs will be established in South Australian waters to accelerate the underwater environment's recovery from the algal bloom.

The SA Government will work with community groups and school students to create one-hectare reefs in 15 locations.

The project will cost around $1 million, which will come out of the state and federal governments' combined $28 million algal bloom support package.

"At the bottom of the ocean floor in our gulfs used to be magnificent and widespread native oyster reefs that were really important to the biodiversity of Spencer Gulf and St Vincent Gulf," Premier Peter Malinauskas said in a press conference on August 7.

"That was all dredged into non-existence.

"Natural oyster reefs perform a filtration function which is worth its weight in gold under the current circumstances."

SA Government to hold Minlaton forum

There will be a community forum about the algal bloom, hosted by the South Australian Government, at Minlaton this Thursday.

One of several being held across the state, the forum will provide updates on response and recovery efforts, including the latest science, public health advice, and support measures for affected communities and industries.

The forums include the opportunity to hear from government leaders including Premier Peter Malinauskas and Environment Minister Susan Close, gain expert insight from SARDI's Professor Mike Steer, Chief Public Health Officer Prof. Nicola Spurrier and others, and engage in a Q&A with a panel of experts, the government has said.

The Minlaton forum will be held 6pm to 7.30pm on Thursday, August 14.

To register, visit algalbloom.sa.gov.au/home/community-forums.

Parking problems solved?

Joanna Tucker
JOURNALIST

FOLLOWING community backlash, Copper Coast Council will revise parking limits along Kadina's Taylor Street — converting a section to unlimited parking while retaining a four-hour limit in another.

Exactly which bays will change is yet to be determined, with council staff now tasked with finalising the details.

As reported in the YP Country Times (Not a fine day for parking, 29-7-25) residents were in uproar after receiving parking fines issued via the artificial intelligence system Aero Ranger.

This led to a motion at council's August 6 meeting to remove the four-hour limit entirely; however, it was amended to retain a section of four-hour parking to ensure shoppers would not overstay their welcome.

Speaking at the meeting, elected member Brent Walker said he supported the initial motion to convert all parking to unlimited.

"It's no different, this Aero Ranger, than someone walking around with a piece of chalk so to me, it's reasonably straight forward," Councillor Walker said.

Councillor Peter Oswald questioned how council could discourage a small number of offenders that park in front of businesses for long periods of time without penalising shoppers and staff who do the right thing.

"Some (staff) have to drive across the entire Yorke Peninsula to get here ... and there's no public transport," Cr Oswald said.

"There's over 50 employees just on Hallett Street (Kadina) and they're all driving to work."

Chief executive Dylan Strong noted that council would be undertaking and prioritising a traffic management study.

"We realise that parking limits can be a contentious subject and we see the study as an important one, so we will be placing some priority on it," Mr Strong said.

"However, with respect to current resourcing, it was important we allow ourselves some time for resource allocation but also to have a wholesale collection of data to make those assessments."

Deputy Mayor Neil Sawley then amended the motion to have a section of the Taylor Street car park keep the four-hour limit.

He proposed keeping part of the car park as four-hour parking to ensure regular turnover, with council to review the situation going forward.

Mayor Roslyn Talbot said this amendment would create plenty of long-term parking, and keep a few parks available for four-hour parking.

Cr Peter Sims said he was not in favour of the original motion with just unlimited parking, but supported the amendment.

"I think, finally, there's a wake-up call here that council is policing these parking areas in the community," Cr Sims said.

Cr Matthew Stock and Cr Walker raised concerns over two-hour parking spaces in Moonta during the discussion.

Cr Stock said he looked forward to the results of the study, particularly concerning Moonta.

"In Moonta, we are getting more businesses along Ryan Street and, at the moment, it's all day parking there," he said.

"We will see what the study brings."

The amended motion was carried, with only Cr Walker against it.

National Trust branches pass the buck back

■ From page 1

OF the several YP branches protesting, the Moonta branch — one of the NTSA's largest — is facing a $47,365 fee, which chair Graham Hancock has called unfair.

"We've got a tourist train, a sweet shop and a museum and they all generate an income, but it's all done on the back of volunteers," he said.

Mr Hancock said the branch had not paid NTSA any fees before, with all of the branch's profits reinvested into their work.

"We actually pay for four paid positions — a full-time, but it's all done on the back of volunteers," he said.

"Running a train is a pretty expensive exercise ... our costs are relatively high."

He said the account for the new fee was delivered on June 10 and the branch was required to pay it by June 16, but they have refused.

"The motives behind it is that the Adelaide office needs to raise more money and they see the branches, in my opinion, as a cash cow," Mr Hancock said.

"It's adverse to keeping volunteers who are there for a purpose, and their purpose is to look after the local scene."

"There's quite a bit of pressure on us as a branch because of the (bid for) World Heritage Listing and the demands that is putting on us."

The Moonta chair said his branch was not consulted about the new fee being implemented, nor about the sale of a block of land under the branch's care.

"That (sale) realised $120,000, less expenses, and the branch is not to receive one cent of it," he said.

"It's not a very rewarding feeling."

Ardrossan branch committee secretary Brenda Bowman said they already gave 10 per cent of their admissions to the Ardrossan Progress Association, which they share a building with, and now NTSA wants another 10 per cent, about $1000.

She said the branch had also received an insurance bill from the NTSA, around the same time as the fee request, which was six times more than the previous year for no extra cover.

Kadina branch chair Gerry Guerin said the NTSA head office was "city-centric" and unaware of the challenges country branches faced.

NOT FORKING OUT... National Trust of South Australia Moonta branch chair Graham Hancock (right), with vice-chair Stephen Stock at Hughes Enginehouse in Moonta Mines, has spoken out against a new fee implemented by head office.

"Local museums, heritage museums, whatever they do by way of raising funds in the local area, we want the money to stay in the local area as much as possible," he said.

A Yorke Peninsula branch volunteer who wished not to be named said this fee would be a "nail in the coffin" for struggling branches.

"They're doing it under the pretext that it's to help with financial auditing and bookwork ... but really what they care about is things like Ayers House, they're trying to get Mintaro Hall," they said.

"Ultimately places will go under, museums will close."

"We don't make enough money to financially help the National Trust."

"We'll close, they'll take our collections and then they'll put a for sale sign up at the front."

NTSA was contacted for comment.

The YP Country Times understands NTSA is holding meetings around the state to discuss the fee.

Drink drivers reported at Yorketown, Arthurton and Moonta

POLICE have reported a 46-year-old Yorketown man for drink driving and issued a six-month instant loss of licence.

Police stopped his Toyota 4WD at about 6.30pm on Monday, August 11, on Minlaton Road, Yorketown, to breath test him.

It will be alleged the driver returned a positive result of 0.124.

He will be summonsed to appear in the Maitland Magistrates Court at a later date.

Also on Monday, at about 10.30pm, police stopped a Toyota utility on Harmers Road, Arthurton, for the purpose of a breath test.

It will be alleged the driver, a 57-year-old man from Melton, returned a positive result of 0.070.

The driver was reported for drink driving and will be summonsed to appear in the Maitland Magistrates Court at a later date.

A 33-year-old Moonta Bay man lost his licence and car after he was caught drink driving last Thursday, August 7.

About 5pm, Yorke Mid North Highway Patrols stopped a Toyota 4WD on George Street, Moonta, for the purpose of a breath test.

It will be alleged the driver recorded a blood alcohol reading of 0.123.

The driver was reported for drink driving and issued a six-month instant loss of licence notice.

The Toyota was impounded for 28 days, and the driver will be summonsed to appear in the Kadina Magistrates Court at a later date.

Training boost for ED doctors at Wallaroo

EMERGENCY department doctors now have greater access to specialist training on Yorke Peninsula, with Wallaroo Hospital's Dr Dewald Behrens approved as a primary supervisor under the Australasian College for Emergency Medicine (ACEM) program.

Dr Behrens' accreditation means the Northern Yorke Peninsula Health Service is now a recognised site for ACEM's Foundational, Intermediate and Advanced Emergency Medicine Training Programs — opening the door for more doctors to train locally.

Dr Behrens said he was delighted to have received the qualifications.

"Maintaining 1.0 FTE FACEM (Full Time Equivalent and Fellowship of Australasian College of Emergency Medicine) staff hours means we can provide more advanced training to prospective trainees, for instance, the much-sought-after ACEM certificate and diploma," he said.

This training builds on the Foundational Emergency Medicine Training Programs already offered in Wallaroo.

Yorke and Northern Local Health Network executive director of clinical services Hendrika Meyer said the new accreditation would provide more opportunities across the region and encourage doctors to complete their rural training in Wallaroo.

"With additional opportuni-

CLINICAL SKILLS... Northern Yorke Peninsula Health Service (Wallaroo Hospital) can now provide training pathways for General Practitioners who wish to continue working in emergency departments as consultants.

ties, the NYP Health Service in Wallaroo is likely to attract doctors seeking ACEM training in regional areas, which will benefit staff and consumers alike," Ms Meyer said.

YNLHN acting chief executive Coenraad Robberts said the network was thrilled to see more training opportunities available within the region.

"Within the YNLHN, our dedication to providing quality care is highlighted by the new opportunities being created at the NYP Health Service," Mr Robberts said.

The ACEM postgraduate qualifications provide increasing levels of complexity and clinical skills.

The Emergency Medicine Certificate, Emergency Medicine Diploma and Emergency Medicine Advanced Diploma are recommended for FACEM trainees and trainee general practitioners who wish to continue working in emergency departments as consultants.

Official confirmation of the accreditation will occur after an audit in January 2026 to ensure the FACEM FTE at this service still meets the required 1.0 FTE staffing.

The 2026 accreditation covers the ACEM Foundational, Intermediate and Advanced Emergency Medicine Training Program (formerly the Certificate of Emergency Medicine).

This allows the NYP Health Service to offer rural generalist registrars advanced skills training in emergency medicine, alongside the new FACEM trainee opportunities.

The ACEM, a not-for-profit organisation, is responsible for training emergency physicians and advancing professional standards in emergency medicine in Australia and New Zealand.

For a health service to be eligible as a training site for these programs, it must have at least 1.0 FTE FACEM staffing.

GROUNDED festival set to ignite Yorkes

FASCINATING... The Exquisite Familiar exhibition at Weaner's Flat Progress Hall, Yorketown, is billed as one of the highlights of GROUNDED. PHOTO: Access2Arts

YORKE Peninsula will come alive from August 15 to 24 when the GROUNDED YP Art Festival returns with more than 30 workshops, performances, events and exhibitions across the region.

The 10-day celebration will transform towns into stages, galleries and creative spaces, featuring interactive light installations, live music, hands-on workshops and large-scale coastal performances.

Country Arts SA and Yorke Peninsula Council arts and cultural facilitator Molly Flanagan-Sjoberg said the festival had become one of the region's most anticipated events.

"GROUNDED is all about celebrating the diversity of creativity on YP while also creating opportunities for visitors and locals to come together, learn, and be inspired," she said.

"The festival enriches our arts and culture scene, supports local businesses, strengthens community pride and welcomes visitors to experience the beauty and hospitality of our region."

The festival will include major art exhibitions, with the Fine Art Exhibition at Maitland Town Hall and the Sculpture and Photography Exhibitions at Edithburgh Institute.

Exhibitions will be open daily throughout the festival.

Supported by local progress associations and the Yorke Peninsula Arts and Cultural Working Group, GROUNDED builds on the foundations of the former YP Art Exhibition, adding an expanded program of performances, workshops and music.

"We are committed to making YP a must-visit destination — not just for our stunning beaches and landscapes, but for our vibrant cultural experiences," Ms Flanagan-Sjoberg said.

Feast on visual arts

VISITORS to the GROUNDED YP Art Festival can enjoy visual art in all its forms with seven exhibitions to be open daily from August 16 to 24.

Winners of visual art prizes will be selected by a panel of three highly regarded judges.

Ngarrpadla Daphne Paringangki Rickett, a Kaurna, Ngarrindjeri, Latji Latji and Nharangga woman, is a respected Elder and artist known for her deep knowledge of traditional Australian plants.

For more than 30 years, she has used art to share cultural stories, engage communities and foster understanding between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people.

Her works span various media and are held in public and private collections.

Award-winning sculptor and curator Anna Small studied at the North Adelaide School of Art and has exhibited widely across Australia.

She founded the Fleurieu Arthouse in 2017, with her works exploring nature, memory and storytelling.

Master Photographer Karen Waller is nationally and internationally recognised for portrait, nature, aerial and landscape photography, with accolades including multiple SA Epson Portrait Photographer of the Year awards and the 2022 International Portrait Photographer of the Year Portrait Story category.

Highlights of the festival

The Exquisite Familiar

South Australian artists will share imaginative and symbolic works in The Exquisite Familiar, an immersive exhibition exploring disability experiences.

The works feature “familiar” — creatures representing personal journeys, barriers and resilience — and invite visitors to interact, reflect and join the conversation.

The free exhibition runs weekends from 10am to 3pm at Weaner’s Flat Progress Hall, Yorketown.

School and community group bookings are available by appointment.

Sea of Light

An interactive light installation will transform Ardrossan Town Hall into a glowing world of imagination in Sea of Light.

Armed with a UV torch, visitors can paint, stencil and guide glowing ships across the sea floor, leaving trails of light accompanied by a gentle soundtrack.

The free, family-friendly experience runs weekends 10am to 4pm and weekdays 3.30pm to 6.30pm.

Lanterns and Fire — The Story of Widhadha

A spectacular finale to the GROUNDED YP Art Festival, this large-scale outdoor performance will blend fire, light and storytelling inspired by Nharangga cultural history.

As twilight falls, the Marion Bay shoreline will come alive with a glowing procession of community-made lanterns, leading into a performance featuring local artists, school students and community.

This free event begins at 5.30pm on Saturday, August 23.

For more information visit ypart.com.au/whats-on.

Beating Up The Beatles

Award-winning regional cabaret artist Charlee Watt will reimagine Lennon and McCartney classics with swing, sway and soul in Beating Up The Beatles at Stansbury.

She’ll be joined by a band of multi-instrumentalists and supported by Yorke Peninsula’s own rising star Karina Voigt.

The show is at the Stansbury Institute, 7pm to 9pm on Saturday, August 16. Tickets $15-$30 at ypart.com.au.

Workshops

GROUNDED participants can try their hand at painting, drawing, ceramics, mosaics, weaving and more.

Six drawing and painting workshops include still life, watercolour abstraction and painting postcards, will be held at Maitland Information Centre, Ballara Art and Lifestyle Retreat, Warooka, and Light Church, Edithburgh.

Ceramic painting and pottery wheel workshops with Meg Honner will be hosted in a historical shearing shed at the Forgotten Paddock, Yorke Valley, while Watsacowie Brewing Company in Minlaton will offer platter and trinket dish workshops.

Award-winning First Nations artist Sonya Rankine will teach traditional Ngarrindjeri and Ngadjuri weaving at Sunny Hill Distillery, Arthurlton, while Hannah Olsen Dale will run tapestry weaving with natural fibres at Stansbury Caravan Park and Minlaton Town Hall.

At Heart and Soul Patchwork, Minlaton, Michelle White will teach the revived art of English paper piercing to create a needle-book.

Photographer Steph Ball will lead an exclusive tour of private properties and hidden locations, to compliment her A Beach a Week exhibition at Ballara Art and Lifestyle Retreat and a book launch of the same name.

For children aged 3 to 12, Art Spark! Kids’ Craft at Port Vincent Institute Hall offers three sessions. The hall will also host a mosaic workshop for adults with Jenny Tuttle.

In the performing arts, cabaret performer Charlee Watt leads the all-ages Coastal Chorus at Location Cafe, Edithburgh, while Liam Smith invites voices to Shanties by the Sea at the Dalrymple Hotel, Stansbury.

For information and tickets to these and many other events, visit ypart.com.au.

Yorke Table to showcase YP's finest flavours

YORKE Peninsula’s rich agricultural and seafood heritage will be in the spotlight at The Yorke Table, a signature event of the GROUNDED YP Art Festival.

The exclusive dining experience will run from 6pm to 9pm on Wednesday, August 20, at Barley Stacks Wines, Yorke Valley. Guests will enjoy a gourmet menu crafted by renowned local chef Caroline Bonnett of MBC Foods, featuring fresh, locally sourced ingredients from leading regional producers.

The evening includes tastings of locally made beer, wine and spirits, brief presentations by key producers, and live music from local musician Caleb Raymond.

Arts and cultural facilitator Molly Flanagan-Sjoberg said the event would connect art, culture, community and local enterprise.

“The Yorke Table is more than just a dinner — it’s a celebration of the people and producers who bring incredible quality and flavour to our region,” she said.

A curated selection of produce will be available to sample throughout the evening.

Tickets are limited, with group bookings encouraged for a communal dining experience. Doors open at 5.30pm.

Bookings: eventbrite.com.au.

WHAT a weekend in Price!

The biennial Tractor Pull Family Fun Weekend delivered a spectacular show on Saturday and Sunday, August 2 and 3.

With a gold coin entry, families got an amazing day packed with everything from vintage tractors to classic cars, stalls, and community stands including those held by PIRSA, Friends of Osprey and the RFDS.

Crowds were kept entertained thanks to the dedication of our many volunteers.

The Price oval was a festival of horsepower, featuring a stunning Show 'n' Shine display with around 80 cars, bikes, and trucks from across the state.

Huge local trucks gave everyone a touch-a-truck experience that truly put the scale of the machines into perspective alongside the latest Case IH tractors.

Kids had a blast with a whirlwind of free activities.

They could pick oranges, collect eggs and even milk a cow to win a prize.

Ollie's Farm Pavilion was a hub of creativity, where Mel and others guided children in painting 180 pebbles to create Florence the Serpent, a beautiful new community art piece.

SOS Yorkes' 1956 Ferguson tractor saw 120 little brushes paint it

Saltbush Country brings prized works home

IT WAS an emotional moment for many as the Saltbush Country exhibition opened in Ascot Gallery, Kadina, on Saturday, August 9.

For Narungga women Lynette Newchurch, of Port Victoria, and her sister Deanna Newchurch, of Point Pearce, it was the first time their award-winning works had been displayed on Country.

Lynette and Deanna are two of seven First Nations artists involved in Saltbush Country, which is touring the state from 2024 to 2026.

The exhibition features a wide range of art styles, and one highlight is a genuine possum-skin coat created by Lynette and Deanna, the first of its kind to be produced using traditional methods in over 100 years.

Lynette has also contributed intricate shell necklaces, while other pieces range from paintings to sculptures and textiles.

Speaking at the official opening, Lynette said it meant a lot to have her art displayed on Narungga Country.

She and Deanna were joined at the opening by fellow Saltbush Country artists Heather Shearer, of Port Augusta, and Josephine

“At Yorke Peninsula Council we were determined to bring Saltbush Country to Guuranda (Yorke Peninsula),” economic development manager Nick Perry said.

“We did not have any gallery spaces that would meet the requirements to house such an important and valuable collection, so we are incredibly thankful to Copper Coast Council, Copper Country Keepsakes, the Copper Coast Art Group and Country Arts SA for working with us so positively toward this great outcome.

“I strongly encourage everyone to check out Saltbush Country in Ascot Gallery, Kadina, and also to get involved with the many events, concerts and workshops happening for GROUNDED YP Art Festival, from August 15 to 24.”

Kadina set to host life-saving bowel screening roadshow

Advertising promotion

THE Get behind it! community roadshow is bringing its life-saving message to South Australia, with the community roadshow set to stop in Kadina at the Copper Coast Show, this Saturday and Sunday, August 16 and 17.

The community event is part of the Australian Government’s National Bowel Cancer Screening Program — a free program for Australians aged 45 to 74.

It aims to lift screening rates and reduce deaths from bowel cancer, Australia’s second-biggest cancer killer.

Currently, only about 40 per cent of eligible Australians take part in the program.

Yet, if detected early, more than 90 per cent of bowel cancers can be successfully treated.

Visitors to the Copper Coast Show can meet the Get behind it! team, pick up free giveaways, take home easy-to-understand health information, and order a first or replacement bowel screening kit.

Well-known Australians including Shane Crawford, Matthew Richardson, Wayne Schwass, Julie Goodwin, Andrew Jarman and Dr Preeya Alexander are supporting the campaign.

Each is encouraging Australians to take advantage of the quick, simple, and free test that can save lives.

Dr Preeya Alexander, program expert for the Get behind it! community roadshow, says screening is one of the most effective tools for detecting bowel cancer early.

“Through the roadshow, we’re taking the message directly to communities and breaking down barriers to participation,” Dr Preeya Alexander says.

“As a GP, I can’t stress enough how critical bowel cancer screening is — it’s a small step that can lead to life-saving results.”

The National Bowel Cancer Screening Program sends a free at-home test every two years to eligible Australians aged 50 to 74. Recently, the age limit has lowered to 45, meaning people aged 45 to 49 can now order their first kit and join the program by visiting the program’s website, health.gov.au/our-work/national-bowel-cancer-screening-program.

Yorke Peninsula locals are encouraged to drop by the roadshow during the Copper Coast Show and “get behind it” by taking the free bowel screening test.

Cinnamon donuts and connection

THERE is a reason people keep coming back to the Copper Coast Show — and it's not just for the donuts, according to CC Show secretary Belinda White.

"It's because a country show day is an opportunity to bring us together," Ms White said.

"From the youngest entering the colouring competition, to the stories proudly shared by the artists in the portrait prize, to the hobbies and passions on display, and a love of agriculture — a country show gives us space to share what we love."

Ms White said the show is a time for memory-making.

"We often hear 'I remember going to the show with my grandpa' or 'I first entered the chocolate cake section when I could barely see over the display case,'" she said.

"These are the moments that stay with us, long after the gates are closed, and get shared again and again.

"Grandparents, or older friends, often point out how much things have changed, or stayed the same, since they were young."

Ms White recognised the community effort behind every show.

"Year-round, volunteers give their time to bring it all together, and local organisations jump in to help across the weekend or host displays of their own," she said.

"The whole thing works well because people pitch in."

Ms White encouraged people to attend the show as "the perfect place to connect".

"You might meet a friend for coffee, bump into an old neighbour you haven't seen in years, or strike up a conversation while the kids enjoy the stage shows.

"More than a lovely weekend out, the Copper Coast Show, like all country shows, is about the people.

"It's an occasion for sharing, connecting, and celebrating the community we're lucky enough to live in."

The 2025 Copper Coast Show will be held at the Kadina Showgrounds this Saturday and Sunday, August 16 and 17.

Peninsula Mazda opens doors in Kadina

PLAQUE PRESENTATION... Mazda Australia SA and NT state manager Bill Pattison (right) presents a certificate from Mazda Australia, recognising the new Peninsula Mazda dealership, to dealer principal Sam McInnes.

Advertising promotion

PENINSULA Mazda celebrated its grand opening in Kadina on Friday, August 8, bringing a dedicated Mazda dealership to Yorke Peninsula for the first time.

The event ran from 4pm to 6pm, giving visitors the chance to explore the full range of models on offer.

Dealer principal Sam McInnes said the lack of Mazda services in the region was the driving force behind the new venture.

"Lots of customers on Yorke Peninsula have to travel to Adelaide for their services and parts," Mr McInnes said.

"Getting a Mazda dealership and service centre in the region will save buyers time and money, and also promote the region."

He said there were already many Mazdas on local roads, and the company had received strong feedback about establishing a dealership in the area.

"The addition of Peninsula Mazda also creates plenty of jobs in the region, which is always a positive.

"In the past nine months, we have increased employment by 20 per cent to prepare for the level of service expected by our company."

The new dealership offers competitive prices on vehicle sales, quick-turnaround servicing, and access to the genuine Mazda parts customers expect.

"We have invested in the latest technology to ensure the service is top quality here on Yorke Peninsula, including the latest diagnostic equipment, as well as six loan cars for customers to use while we service their vehicles," Mr McInnes said.

For those not needing a loan car, Peninsula Mazda offers an on-site lounge and coffee area where customers can relax while their vehicle is serviced.

Discussions to bring a Mazda dealership to the region began in September 2024, including a trip to Melbourne to meet the managing director, who backed the idea.

"We already had good feedback regarding the idea of Peninsula Mazda, and when we took it higher up, they supported it – agreeing the region was deserving of a Mazda dealership," Mr McInnes said.

"People are encouraged to come in, have a look around, and say hello to the friendly staff."

All services can be booked online or in store.

SALES CONSULTANT... Peninsula Mazda sales consultant Braidyn May is on hand to assist prospective customers.

TEAMWORK... Harvest Christian College, Kadina, students Sarah Griffin and Matthew Turner help shell beans at Testimony Faith Homes in Eldoret, Kenya.

HARVEST Christian College, Kadina, students have returned home after an international mission trip to Kenya over the July school holidays.

Year 11s Matthew Turner, Emily Carson, Isabel Lemley and Sarah Griffin, with teacher Tyson Hartley, joined students and staff from other Tyndale schools across South Australia to partner with Testimony Faith Homes and School, and Neema Children's Home and School, two long-standing community organisations based in Eldoret.

During their time in Kenya, the students engaged in hands-on projects including reflooring housing, repainting the children's homes and creating outdoor seating areas for schoolchildren.

They also participated in classroom teaching, assisted with creative learning activities and helped lead activity days for local children.

The group also visited a clean water bottling initiative, which supports education programs for children with disabilities.

Outside of work hours, students spent time connecting with children through games, sport, music and shared meals.

Elders expands finance offering on YP, backed by local expertise

Advertising Promotion

IN response to a growing need for rural and regional customers to access reliable, local business and personal finance, Elders is further expanding its financial services offering.

As part of this expansion, Elders branches in Maitland and Minlaton are now offering a broader range of in-branch financial products, including farm management deposits, term deposits, cash management accounts, and savings accounts.

A local, experienced finance relationship team, led by Michael Jordan, is on hand to support clients with both personal and business finance solutions.

"We are proud to be here, in our community, to offer advice, support, and flexible finance options that suit rural life," Michael says.

This offering complements the work of Elders finance relationship managers across the country, who continue to deliver agricultural and business finance solutions through a brokerage model, working with more than 60 lenders.

The enhanced finance offering builds on Elders' trusted suite of products, which includes:

- *Home and asset finance loans
- *Livestock in transit delivery warranties
- *Livestock funding
- *Rural Products Prepayment Program

With both lending and deposit products now part of our service, Elders can better support

LOCAL SUPPORT... Nicola Schulz, Elders Banking and Finance, says, with both lending and deposit products now part of their service, Elders can better support customers in achieving their personal and business goals, all through their local Elders branch.

customers in achieving their personal and business goals, all through their local Elders branch.

"Elders is the most trusted agribusiness brand in rural and regional Australia, so it makes sense that we are able to offer products as personal and essential as banking services, through our trusted network of branches around Australia," Elders CEO Mark Allison says.

"The expansion of our banking services will allow existing and new customers throughout rural and regional Australia to access a range of financial products geared to support their personal and business goals."

Call into Elders Maitland or Minlaton to find out more about how Elders Finance can support you, or visit us online at eldersfinance.com.au.

Local insight for Copper Coast Prostate Cancer Support Group

COPPER Coast Prostate Cancer Support Group was given an insight into Jodie Bruce's role as a prostate cancer specialist nurse, encompassing an area from Port Augusta and Clare to Yorketown, at the group's recent meeting.

Ms Bruce helps people enquiring about aspects of the disease — ranging from detection, treatment options and dealing with a range of aspects such as forms of incontinence and erectile dysfunction.

Urologists who consult locally refer men to Ms Bruce as a follow-up to often mind-numbing information the specialists present in the short space of an appointment.

She is part of the Prostate Cancer Foundation of Australia, giving men access to a wide range of printed and web-based information, as well as her network of medical specialist contacts.

A current and ongoing emphasis for Ms Bruce is prostate cancer within First Nations communities.

The night gave members a broader picture, outside of their micro-view of their own situations.

The Copper Coast Prostate Cancer Support Group will meet again at the Kadina Bowling Club at 7.30pm on Monday, August 18.

Services Australia Mobile Service Centre hits Yorke Peninsula roads

SERVICES Australia's Mobile Service Centre is touring Yorke Peninsula from next week.

First stop will be at Snowtown on Tuesday, August 19, and last is at Moonta on Thursday, September 4.

The MSC provides a wide range of services, making it easier for local communities to access support, information and assistance close to home.

Staff can help with new Centrelink claims, updating personal details, confirming documents and guiding you through online accounts or the Express Plus mobile apps.

They also handle Medicare registrations and transactions, and can explain how your finances might affect your payments.

Specialised support is available too, including advice on rural payment entitlements for eligible farmers, referrals to social workers, and veteran services such as Department of Veterans' Affairs claims and connections to Open Arms.

Towns and dates for stops are: Snowtown, August 19; Port Wakefield, August 21; Edithburgh, August 26; Yorketown, August 27; Stansbury, August 28; Port Vincent, August 29; Ardrossan, September 1; Minlaton, September 2; Maitland, September 3; Moonta, September 4.

Moonta students help plant trees

COPPER Coast Residents and Ratepayers Association, with the assistance of Moonta Area School years 3 and 4 students, held their annual tree day at the Moonta RV Park on Monday, July 28.

The event was well coordinated and enjoyed by all involved, Copper Coast Residents and Ratepayers Association president Neil Windsor said.

"We are so proud of the years 3 and 4 children from the school," Mr Windsor said.

"The enjoyment and pride is so humbling.

"This is the third year we have done this and the results are becoming very obvious in the community.

"The lessons and knowledge gained will be lifelong to these students."

The Moonta Lions Club came along and cooked a sausage sizzle for participants.

The original date was moved after wet weather on Friday, July 25.

Marion Bay Depot Library moves to community hall

MARION Bay's Depot Library has returned to the community hall, taking the service back to its former home.

The move comes ahead of planned updates to its previous location, the Marion Bay Historical Centre, which will continue to house the town's maritime collection, interest in which has grown since the development of a memorial wall.

"We're excited to see the Marion Bay Depot Library return to the community hall," Yorke Peninsula Council team leader HR and people experience Carina Congdon said.

"This move will provide better access for the community to both the depot library and the maritime collection and allow the town to refresh and celebrate its rich maritime history."

The depot library is one of council's oldest, operating as part of its School Community Library partnership with the Department for Education.

Conducted on a volunteer basis from a local resident's verandah for many years, the library moved to a more permanent location in the community hall during the 1980s.

In 2004, it was relocated to the historical centre, built in 1997 by Keith Nelson and gifted to council with his maritime collection.

Volunteers from the Marion Bay Progress Association cared for the collection and opened it and the library to the public.

As well as the maritime display, it is envisaged the historical centre will be restructured as a walk-through experience, guiding visitors through Marion Bay's history up to the present day.

The depot library is open in its new home, the community hall, from 10am to noon each Wednesday.

Flanno day to help Australian farmers

FARM Angels is encouraging people to take part in Flanno for a Farmer this August, with the official day set for Friday, August 15.

The initiative is simple — wear a flannelette shirt and, if you can, make a donation.

Funds raised will go directly towards practical support for farming families across Australia, including financial assistance, food hampers, care packs, rural payment advice and wellbeing checks.

Farm Angels began in 2014 to help primary producers affected by drought and has since expanded to support those impacted by floods, fires and other natural disasters.

In the past year, the organisation has assisted more than 1100 farmers and their families, providing over $380,000 in direct financial help and completing more than 1400 wellbeing visits and calls.

Founder Natasha Johnston said the day was a straightforward way for Australians to show they value the work farmers do.

“Every dollar raised helps us keep practical support going where it’s needed,” she said.

Farm Angels is aiming to raise $500,000 this year.

To get involved or donate, visit flannoforafarmer.com.au.

Yorke Peninsula celebrates SALA Festival

TWO Yorke Peninsula SA Living Artists Festival events held their official launches earlier this month.

Lymn Galleries in Port Broughton is hosting the You Cannot Be Serious exhibition.

It features artworks by Tracy Lymn, Glynn McKenzie and Joshua William, who are connected by location but have distinctly different styles.

The artists say their works explore themes of childhood memories, nature, the human condition, popular culture and the joy of creating art.

Copper Coast Art Group is presenting an exhibition at Moonta Gallery of the Arts. Copper Coast Council sponsored the opening event on August 3, with Mayor Roslyn Talbot officiating.

“I encourage the whole community to visit the gallery to celebrate our artists and the festival, which runs throughout August,” group member Debbie Seater said.

Grounded YP Art Festival events, running from August 16 to 24, are also part of the statewide SALA Festival. For details, visit ypart.com.au.

Members' forum inspires ideas and connection

University of the Third Age Yorke Peninsula recently held a well-attended members' forum at Artherton, with about 60 members taking part in the day.

The morning began on a high note with guest speaker Ben Wundersitz, who shared the story behind the now well-known health initiative Fat Farmers, which he helped establish in 2012.

Founded to support physical and mental wellbeing in rural communities, Fat Farmers encourages connection through group exercise and social engagement — a message that resonated strongly with the U3AYP audience.

Following Ben's inspiring talk, members broke into smaller groups to discuss and reflect on their own experiences within U3AYP.

U3AYP is a community-based organisation that offers educational, social and recreational activities for retired and semi-retired people across the region.

Thanks to the forum, the U3AYP committees now have a range of new ideas and feedback to help make the organisation even better for its members.

YP Ostomy Support Group update

A YP Ostomy Support Group meeting was held on June 18, and members were pleased to welcome special guests Carmellita and Timna, representing the Omnigon Company, makers of many products ostomates use regularly in their daily lives.

Ostomates have an opening in the body, called a stoma, which is created through surgery to divert waste (urine or faeces) out of the body.

There were many questions asked and answered, and several new products were shown and demonstrated — innovations that will help make life much easier for those who need them.

Members are thankful for the use of the Joyce Olsen Room at Wontama Homes for their meetings.

They are always pleased to see local ostomy specialist nurse Tim Garfield in attendance.

He answered many member questions during the product demonstrations, explaining how each item could be used to suit individual needs.

Skin irritation was also discussed, as many people experience allergic reactions to certain plastics and other artificial materials.

It was interesting to learn that some new products are developed by company owners who are stoma users themselves.

Following the meeting, everyone enjoyed a delicious afternoon tea provided by Carmellita and Timna — a much-appreciated gesture.

The next meeting will be held in the Joyce Olsen Room, Wontama Homes, East Terrace, Kadina, at 2.30pm on Wednesday, August 20.

The guest speaker will be a representative from the Salts Company, another supplier of essential products. Tim will also attend to assist with any concerns, as usual.

Members were saddened to hear of the passing of Lindsay Brooks, of Port Broughton; we all appreciated his great sense of humour and will miss him very much.

All ostomates are welcome to attend meetings.

For information, contact co-ordinator Helen Colliver on 0419 839 869.

If you pop into Gawler Cinema at Hope Central to catch a movie, you may have seen Philip's smiling face and shared a friendly word or two.

From filling cups of popcorn to making sandwich boxes and folding serviettes and much more, the spritely nonagenarian is a key member of the team creating memorable experiences for Gawler movie lovers.

"Volunteering means everything to me," says Philip, who lives at Gawler Hillside Care Community.

"I help wherever I can.

"If somebody needs help or something needs to be done, I'll do it."

Part of the Opal HealthCare family since May 2024, Gawler Hillside Care Community is ideally located for residents to enjoy everything they love about the historic town.

Gawler Hillside Care Community offers residential aged care, but not as you know it — we take the time to understand the big and the little details about how our residents like to live, so they can enjoy their day, their way.

For Philip, that means continuing to live a life of purpose by serving the local community.

"Gawler Hillside truly feels like home," Ann, another resident, says.

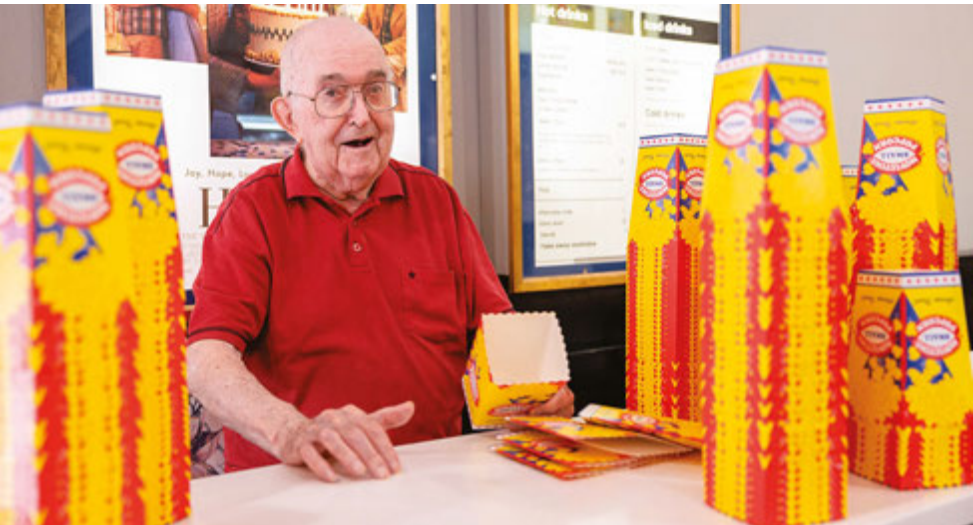

"I enjoy the daily activities, especially getting my nails done."

Our Care Community offers a relaxing environment with the compassionate and personalised care of 24/7 registered nurses.

Residents enjoy nutritious, tasty meals created by our inhouse chefs, and love walking in our beautiful gardens, or using their green thumbs.

Gawler Hillside Care Community is a warm, family-oriented environment, designed to create a sense of kinship. We encourage and support residents to keep the connections they have built within the local community.

Grand Master photographer visits YP

SOUTHERN Yorke Peninsula Photography Club recently held a two-day workshop featuring one of Australia's most acclaimed photographers, Lou Marafioti. Lou is an Australian Photographic Society Grand Master and a gold standard member of the International Federation of Photographic Art. He has received more than 240 international awards for his photographic work entered in some of the most prestigious salons in the world. Lou, who is based in Adelaide, travelled to the peninsula to lead a workshop on portraiture, still life, macro and abstract photography. The workshop focused on building general camera skills and techniques, understanding how light shapes a scene, building confidence in photographing the subject, recognising and understanding what makes a good photograph, and closeup and macro photography. Saturday's workshop was held at the stunning homestead and shearing property of Steph Ball. Club members were fortunate to have three amazing models, Peter "Soxy" Stockings, Anne Hammond and Patrick O'Connell, who shone throughout the day. On Sunday, members travelled to the Troubridge lighthouse, extending their photographic repertoire by trying intentional camera movement and long exposure photography. The weekend provided an ideal forum for learning new skills concomitant with updating concepts and awareness of new photo trends, as well as improving photographic awareness and motivation. The workshop, made possible by a Country Arts SA Quick Response Grant, was a fabulous success with many of the club members left wanting more. The club will be holding its inaugural photographic exhibition at the Ballara Art and Lifestyle Retreat, Warooka in October. WALLAROO

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16

Wallaroo FC sponsors and life members day

WALLAROO Oval will be buzzing this Saturday as the Dogs face off against Kadina in round 17 of the Yorke Peninsula Football League season.

Adding to the occasion is the club's annual sponsors and life members day — a celebration of the people and partners who keep the club ticking.

It is the Bulldogs' way of saying thanks to the loyal supporters, sponsors and tireless volunteers who give their time and energy behind the scenes.

Wallaroo Football Club president Tom Nolan says sponsors are a vital part of every club.

"Without sponsors, clubs can't operate well, especially ones that don't have big financial backing," he said.

"It is great for the recognition for both the club and the sponsor, and it encourages community support, which is always amazing.

"It is a great way for us to show appreciation for our sponsors and give back to them in a small way."

The day's fixtures will be like any other Saturday, with Under 9s and 11s playing at 9am, junior colts 10am, senior colts 11.20am,

B grade 12.55pm and A grade 2.40pm.

Sponsors will be welcomed from 2.30pm, with a reserved area to watch the B and A grade matches while enjoying food and drinks.

"Nathan Wright will cook all the food, there will be plenty of food and drinks available for the sponsors and life members throughout the matches," Nolan said.

"After the final siren, we'll roll into a presentation night, including the induction of two new life members — so it's shaping up to be a fantastic evening."

Sponsors and life members day is held each year when Wallaroo hosts Kadina.

The long-standing rivalry between the two sides makes for a great contest and an entertaining day for guests.

"After the matches, the players and sponsors sit around and chat at the club, and it makes for a great evening," Nolan said.

For more information, visit the Wallaroo Football Club Facebook page, email the club at wallarooofc@sanflcfl.com.au or call president Tom Nolan on 0418 814 692 or secretary Thomas Depledge on 0422 354 912.

Bulldogs celebrate new life members West and Niotis

WALLAROO Football Club will honour two stalwarts with life membership at this weekend's sponsors and life members day.

Andy West and Jason Niotis, long-serving committee members, will receive the club's highest honour in recognition of their decades of service.

LIFE MEMBERS...

Andy West and Jason Niotis shake hands after being awarded life membership by the Wallaroo Football Club.

ANDY WEST

WEST, 68, joined the club in 1985 and has since held almost every committee role, barring treasurer, across 40 years.

He never played football for Wallaroo, but his impact on the club has been enormous.

"The club becomes a huge part of your life, you are here every night and at all the games and trainings," West said.

"For me, it is an honour to be represented among these other names that are life members, there are some very important names on that list.

"We have had plenty of good times at the club, the '90s were a highlight when we won a lot."

West was president of the Wallaroo Football Club throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, which was a tough time for football clubs.

"It was tough in that time, but the people around you are amazing at this club and we all do it together.

"We here are a community club, we aren't just a football club.

"We embrace the social side we have here and it is great to be part of."

"It feels amazing to be honoured with this, especially with the calibre of names already awarded life membership, it's great to be amongst them."

JASON NIOTIS

NIOTIS was involved in the 1987 and 1988 senior colts premierships as a player, before spending time away from the club.

He returned in 2011 when his children became involved in the club, where he has created a long-lasting legacy.

He has also held multiple committee positions and has had a huge influence on junior football in Wallaroo.

"I have been president and vice-president on the junior committee, and have spent lots of time here over the past decade or so.

"I have lots of strong and good memories here, one being involved with the 2019-22 senior colts side that went from bottom to top, that was great to be part of and watch."

Niotis has been instrumental in the club's junior football program, helping to get it to where it is today.

"In 2016 and 2017 we had no senior colts, so to be able to win it (a premiership) five years later was amazing -- but not having senior colts for those two years did knock out two years of talent coming through our ranks," he said

"In a community club like Wallaroo, the people are what make it and to be on a list with some of these names, it's a real pinch yourself moment."

"We both thank the Wallaroo Football Club for inducting us and awarding us with life membership, and thank all the people who have made this possible."

YP trio back for AFLW season 10

Peter Argent

REPORT BY

Yorke Peninsula footballers Chelsea Biddell (Port Vincent), Rachelle Martin (Minlaton) and Shineah Goody (Edithburgh) will be on the national stage this weekend as the AFL Women's competition kicks off its 10th season.

The AFLW began in 2017, with the Adelaide Crows as a foundation club and the inaugural premiers.

Crows start their 2025 campaign against St Kilda in Melbourne, on Sunday, August 17, with both Biddell and Martin expected to be in the team.

Biddell, drafted as a forward, is now one of the competition's leading defenders and earned All-Australian selection in 2023 and 2024.

Martin has played 59 games since debuting in 2020, became a regular in 2022's season six, and was part of the premiership team that defeated Melbourne at Adelaide Oval.

Goody will line up for Port Adelaide against Fremantle at Alberton Oval in the final match of round one on Sunday, August 17.

She told the YP Country Times she was looking forward to the season and that the Power squad had been working on consistency at training.

"I played the entire trial against the Crows and half a game against Collingwood," Goody said.

"It was a great experience last year.

"It was good to be a part of the expansion team that has gone further than anyone in the major round, but we are aiming to be like teams like North, Brisbane and Adelaide — a leading team in the competition and being in contention for the flag.

"Personally, I'm not a goal setter — for me it's more around team-based outcomes and goals.

"Most of my training this year has been around playing the wing role, but you don't know what midfield opportunities may arise during the season."

Goody was Port Adelaide's best first-year player in 2024 and won the AFL Players' Association award for best first-year player.

She averaged 13 disposals, played all 14 games and featured in three finals in her debut season.

The 12-round fixture includes a South Australian showdown at Norwood Oval in round 11.

Indigenous Round is round three, August 29-31, with Port Adelaide hosting Gold Coast and the Crows travelling to Sydney to play GWS.

Season opener will be Carlton versus Collingwood on Thursday, August 14.

AFLW... Shineah Goody plays against Adelaide in the traditional Port Adelaide prison bars guernsey. Below: Rachelle Martin, Adelaide Crows premiership player, is back in 2025.

Mumford's breakout game earns MVP nomination

Peter Argent
REPORT BY

Jack Mumford's dominant display for Woodville-West Torrens Under 18s has earned him SANFL Player of the Round honours.

The key forward from Wallaroo claimed the Round 16 MVP after spearheading the Eagles' 58-point win over Glenelg at Glenelg on Saturday, August 2. He racked up 22 disposals (16 kicks), pulled in a round-high 14 marks (four contested) and slotted 3.4.

"That performance gave us an indication of Jack's capacity as a footballer," Eagles U18 coach Shane Reardon said.

"He marked everything and was involved in at least 10 scoring opportunities.

"Besides the three goals he kicked, he also handed off another three, hitting up teammates with passes.

"He's leading the competition in contested marks.

"At 187 cm, he's a tough match-up for anyone at U18 level. Jack has the capacity to play at higher levels, and there's certainly plenty of upside to his game."

Mumford dominated the match.

"He's a good lad who wants to work at his craft," Reardon said.

"When Jack was in our U16 program, he played mainly as a key defender, and last year he missed a lot of football through injury."

This season Mumford has played 15 games as the Eagles' key forward, kicking 23 goals, including a five-goal haul against Norwood in round 4.

In 2024, he played for Wallaroo at U17 level, winning a premiership, and also featured in a couple of A grade matches.

Late that year, he made two appearances for the Eagles.

Mumford was part of the Woodville-West Torrens U16 program in 2023 and, back in 2019, played junior colts for Bute-Paskeville.

The 2025 SANFL U18 MVP receives a trophy and $1000 courtesy of the SANFL.

Introduced in 2009, the award is presented to the best-performing player in the SANFL U18 competition.

One player is nominated each round during the home-and-away season, with the overall winner selected by a panel chaired by SANFL head of talent Brenton Phillips at the conclusion of the minor round.

SANFL UNDER 18... Best-on-ground against Glenelg, Woodville-West Torrens' Jack Mumford was named the competition's Player of the Round.

Seb shoots well at state event

Another Westbrook on the horizon

Austinn Lane
JOURNALIST

Yorke Peninsula Area School student Sebastian Thom has impressed at the Golf Australia — SA 12 and Under School Golf Event, in Adelaide.

Thom placed in the top 20 in both the country and state boys' finals at the event, held at West Beach Parks Golf Course's par 50 executive layout on July 28 and 29.

"I finished 12th out of 100 golfers in the country final, which I was really happy with and stoked to get, especially since it was raining both days," he said.

"I felt I did better on the second day, it was my first time at the course so I had a little more knowledge second time round, which helped me for the state final."

One of the highlights of his tournament was on a 140m par three, where he landed the ball on the green from a tee shot.

"It was a great tee shot, I was proud of it and thought it would set me up for a good hole," Thom said.

"I then putted from about 15 metres and sunk it, which felt amazing to sink a big putt like that and get a birdie."

"It was my first school tournament, so I was quite nervous heading into it."

"I was really glad to do well on day one and shake those nerves off and enjoy the week."

"I play at Yorketown at home, so I had very little experience on greens, which was another challenge, but I was proud with how I went overall."

Thom was one of nine golfers to progress from a 25-player qualifier at Copperclub, The Dunes, Port Hughes, recording the best score of the group.

"I have been playing golf for a while now, I used to go out with Dad when I was really little and play with him, which is where I found out I loved golf," he said.

If the opportunity presented to take his golf further, he would love to take that chance.

"We have just been told of an event coming up in the Riverland, so if we are able to make that then that will be my next tournament, which is exciting."

"I want to thank (Copperclub's) Kevin Ryan for all his help, he tells us about all the events coming up and we probably wouldn't have known about this event if it wasn't for him."

TEERING OFF... Sebastian Thom, of Yorketown, tees off on the 13th tee at the West Beach executive par 50 course during a recent competition.

Football talent runs deep in the Westbrook family, and 15-year-old Jed is the latest to make his mark.

Jed is the third generation to pull on the boots at senior level.

His grandfather Ian, from Arthurton, played 10 league games for Woodville under the late Russell Ebert in 1987-88 before forging a reputation as a hard-nosed coach, guiding several teams to premier-ships.

Jed's father, David, enjoyed a decorated career.

After an A grade premiership with Kadina in 2002 and a YPFL Mail Medal the following year, he debuted for Woodville-West Torrens in 2004.

David was part of the Eagles' 2006 SANFL premiership side, which upset Central District by 76 points at Football Park.

He finished with 71 league games and 61 goals before moving to Kangaroo Island, where he added more A grade flags with Parndana.

Now Jed is following suit, playing colts each Saturday for Parndana before backing up in A grade in the Kangaroo Island Football League.

He's been among the best players in all 10 colts matches this year and impressed in successive A grade games in July.

On June 1 he also represented the KIFL Under 15s against KIFL... Playing in the Kangaroo Island Football League for Parndana, Jedd Westbrook — son of David Westbrook and grandson of Ian Westbrook, Yorke Peninsula football greats — has stepped into A grade this season.

Southern Football League.

This season, father and son have shared the field.

In a clash with Wisanger on June 28, both were named among the best, with David kicking seven of the Roosters' 10 goals.

"I actually kicked eight, but one was lost in the wash somewhere," he said.

David said Jed has the lean, tall build of his mother Becky's side of the family, while younger brother Zak is more like him.

Jed will head to college next year and train with the Eagles.

Becky and daughter Indi have also lined up together in Parndana's senior netball side this season.

Kelly off to AFL Draft State Combine

Peter Argent
REPORT BY

Endeavouring to follow in the footsteps of his uncle, former Adelaide Crow Matthew Kelly, Jim Kelly (NYP connections) is chasing his dream of making an AFL list.

His next step comes on Saturday, October 11, when he will take part in the South Australian state screening of the AFL Draft Combine.

Kelly is one of six SANFL players invited to the state combine.

Joining the Norwood midfielder are four SA Under 18 defenders — Elliott Duffield, Jett Dahlitz, Redlegs teammate Balyn O'Brien and Bryce Sanders — as well as elusive Glenelg forward Latrelle-

Sumner Pickett, the only mature-age selection at 19.

A wingman in SA's title-winning team at the 2025 Marsh AFL National Championships U18 Boys, Kelly is currently playing in the Norwood reserves.

Since the championships, he has been a consistent performer, averaging 18.3 disposals across three games and gathering 23 touches in Norwood's win over West Adelaide at The Parade.

SA U18 coach Tony Bamford describes Kelly as "a very talented footballer" and "one of those players who finds a way to make the grade".

Football runs deep in Kelly's family. His father, Richard — now CEO at Norwood — played 129 games for the Redlegs and Glenelg in the 1990s, winning Glenelg's best and fairest in 1999.

Uncle Matthew played 50 games for Norwood and a handful for Adelaide before a knee injury ended his career.

Their grandfather, Maurice Arbon, was a Yorke Peninsula football legend before and after World War II.

Arbon won Mail Medals on either side of the war, played 98 games for North Adelaide between 1945 and 1950, and represented SA once.

He was part of North-Norwood's wartime premiership sides in 1943 and 1944, and remains the only playing coach to lead the Western Areas Football League to a Crosier Cup victory in the Yorke Peninsula interleague competition.

Heart and soul: SA country lad becomes 200-game AFL player

■ From page 48

Hewett's success stems from his reserved but driven nature, his determination to be the best he can be, the support of his family and the Port Broughton community, and the opportunities offered by South Australia's talent pathways.

A family steeped in football

George is the third of four brothers who grew up playing for the Broughton-Mundoora Eagles in the Northern Areas competition.

His eldest brother, Nick, has returned to the Eagles, where he has been a successful playing coach and enjoyed multiple premierships.

Wilbur, the second eldest, spent a year at Central District — playing several league games — and was a regular for the Northern Zone in the SA Country Football Championships.

The youngest brother, Cameron, spent three years on Port Adelaide's AFL list and played SANFL League for both Port Adelaide and North Adelaide.

Rising through the SANFL ranks

Hewett was part of North Adelaide's premiership-winning Under 16 side in 2011.

He also played in the Prince Alfred College program and famously took part in an Independent Schools knockout grand final at Prospect Oval with a broken arm.

In 2013, Hewett was a key member of South Australia's breakthrough U18 national championship side — the state's first title at that level since 1995 — coached by Brenton "Sticks" Phillips.

"George was always hard at the contest — a competitive animal who set himself apart," Phillips, now SANFL talent and operations manager, said.

"His skill base was solid, and he worked tirelessly to win the ball and use it well.

"Whatever role he was given, he performed it to 100 per cent of his ability."

Drafted to the Swans

The late Andrew Scholefield, Sydney Swans life member and former SA recruiting manager, was instrumental in Hewett being drafted at pick 32 in 2013.

Born in late December, Hewett spent his first two years at Sydney playing in the North East Australia Football League before making his AFL debut in round 1, 2016.

That same season, he played in the AFL grand final.

Across 120 games with the Swans, Hewett built a reputation as a consistent and respected midfielder.

Making his mark at Carlton

At the end of 2021, Hewett joined Carlton as a free agent. Over his first 199 games, he averaged 20.4 disposals, 4.4 tackles and four clearances.

In his 200th match, Hewett again delivered, finishing with 23 disposals (including 18 handballs), six tackles and seven clearances.

While Carlton kicked late goals to narrow the margin, they couldn't avoid defeat — echoing a mixed milestone record for Hewett, who also lost his 50th game but won his 100th and 150th.

Celebrating a milestone

A large group of family and friends travelled to Docklands to celebrate Hewett's achievement, honouring a country footballer whose heart, skill and resilience have carried him to the highest level of the game.

Note from the author: I first saw George Hewett play in a NAFA U14s (junior colts) grand final at Laura Oval in 2009.

Playing in the centre, Hewett was best on ground in a losing side.

Broughton-Mundoora was up against a Crystal Brook team featuring future Magarey Medallist Campbell Combe and his brother Will.

I was fortunate to see him again in the U16 premiership with North Adelaide at Football Park, and later as part of South Australia's triumphant U18 state team.

I was also at the MCG when he endured the heartbreak of the AFL grand final loss, and at his debut match for the Blues in round 1, 2022.

Hewett embodies what every club looks for in a footballer — honest, dedicated, team-first, and a player who adds value while working hard in every game.

A true success story from South Australian country football.

AFL... George Hewett (second left) with brothers Cameron Hewett, Nick Hewett and Will Hewett, after George's 200th AFL game.

NAFA JUNIOR COLTS... Broughton-Mundoora played in the 2009 Under 14 grand final, and George Hewett was best on ground in the losing side.

AFL... George Hewett enjoys a Carlton victory at Adelaide Oval in 2024.

CELEBRITY BUSINESS TIPSTERS

On an elevated stage

Peter Argent
REPORT BY

WNBA

Steph Talbot (Kadina) and the New York Liberty went down to the Minnesota Lynx on Sunday, August 10, losing 71-83.

Talbot played 12 minutes, collecting four rebounds and an assist, but went 0/3 from the field.

The defeat ended a three-game winning streak, which included an August 5 clash with Dallas where Talbot scored 13 points (three 3-pointers) along with three rebounds, two assists and a steal.

AFL

Caleb Poulter (Ardrossan) and the Western Bulldogs held on for a hard-fought six-point win over Melbourne at the MCG on Sunday afternoon.

The Demons, under a new coach after changes during the week, were gallant to the final siren but fell short, 15.9 (99) to 15.15 (105).

Poulter contributed with 10 disposals (seven kicks and three handballs) along with two marks, two tackles and a clearance.

The Bulldogs remain outside the top eight with two rounds to play.

Broughton-Mundoora junior George Hewett played his milestone 200th AFL game at Docklands on Saturday night, when his side Carlton lost to Gold Coast Suns, 11.8 (74) to 13.15 (93). (See separate story page 27.)

Lachie Jones (Bute) was a late withdrawal from the Port Adelaide side due to illness.

At home, the Power pushed Fremantle to the end but fell just short, losing by a single straight kick, 13.14 (92) to 13.8 (86).

SANFL League

Amid Woodville-West Torrens' modest run of league form, hampered by a lengthy injury list, Jordan Tilbrook (Edithburgh) has stood tall against the odds.

In just his fourth league game, Tilbrook was tasked with shutting down Sturt's — and the SANFL's — most dangerous small forward, Josh

Hone. The coaching staff named Tilbrook best player for his team-first effort. While Hone kicked two goals for the match, under Tilbrook's watch he was restricted to just two behinds.

Tilbrook finished with 10 disposals, four marks and two tackles.

Max Litster (Minlaton) gathered 18 touches, while Jett Hasting (Maitland), playing high half-forward, had eight disposals and kicked a goal in the 8.7 (55) to 19.22 (136) loss at Woodville.

Never in front at any stage, South Adelaide went down to the Adelaide Crows by 27 points at home, 8.8 (56) to 12.11 (83).

Walleroo export and former Woodville-West Torrens Eagle, now Panthers co-captain, Jake Summerton, finished with 12 disposals (10 kicks) and five marks in a solid display.

SANFL Reserves

In the North Adelaide reserves, Charlie Dickeson (Broughton-Mundoora) collected a respectable 18 disposals despite the Roosters falling by six goals, 7.14 (56) to 13.14 (92).

Still eligible for the SANFL Under 18s, Dickeson has now played seven senior games in the Roosters' seconds.

Despite the Central District reserves' 52-point loss to South Adelaide at Noarlunga, Trent Tattoli (Southern Eagles) finished with 20 disposals and one of the Bulldogs' six goals.

SANFL Under 18

Woodville-West Torrens secured its place in the major round with a second successive win over Glenelg.

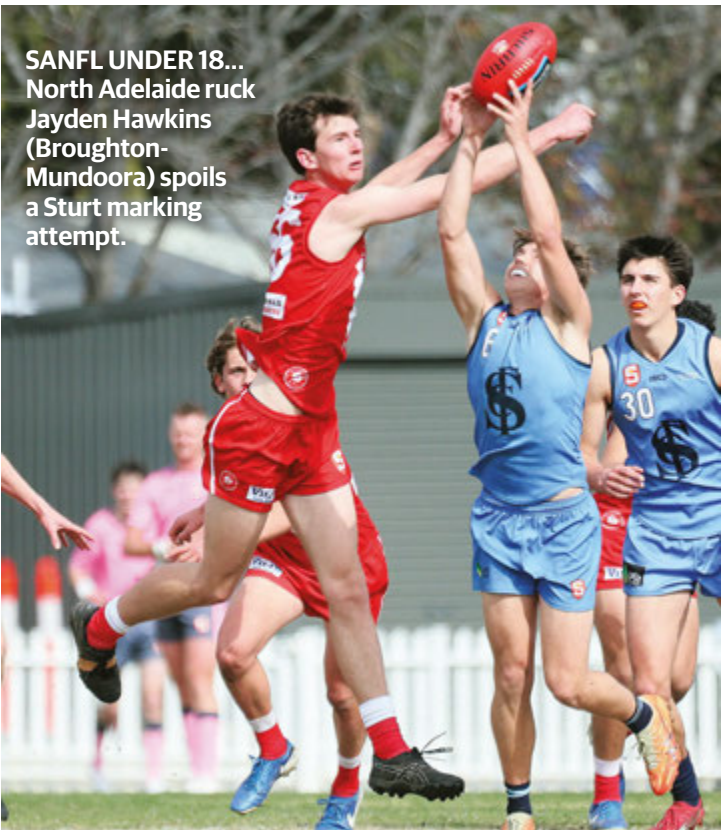

This week's clash was much tighter, with the Eagles holding on for a four-point victory, 9.7 (61) to 7.15 (57).

"We got a bit lucky in this match," Eagles U18 coach Shane Reardon said. "They missed a number of shots during the final quarter."

"Luke Russel (Walleroo) was forced into the ruck due to Freddie Wilson's injury and did a great job, finishing with 14 hit-outs and 14 possessions."

"He worked hard across the contest, shouldering most of the ruck duties for the day."

Jack Mumford (Walleroo) wasn't as prolific as the week before but still kicked three important goals and took two impressive contested marks among his 10 possessions.

He went at 100 per cent disposal efficiency.

"Hunter Wellgreen (Walleroo) played in our midfield again and worked hard for his 14 possessions, three clearances and six score involvements," Reardon said.

"Playing as a small forward, Blake Karpany (Kadina) kicked two great goals again and was busy with his tackling and pressure work."

"We're now one of three teams locked in for finals, along with West and Sturt."

"Central plays Glenelg this Saturday to decide the final spot."

Jayden Hawkins, from Broughton-Mundoora, lined up in the ruck for North Adelaide against ladder leader Sturt.

Despite the 73-point defeat,

Hawkins was a solid contributor, collecting 11 disposals and 28 hit-outs.

It was his first match of the 2025 campaign after playing 14 U18 games last season.

SANFL Under 16

In the Eagles' penultimate match of the 2025 campaign, they endured another big loss, this time to Glenelg by 73 points, 7.5 (47) to 18.12 (120).

Mason Papps (Kadina) had his moments with 11 touches and six tackles.

VFL

In the 21-team VFL competition, the Southport Sharks are third after a 13-point win in the clash with 2024 grand final foe, Werribee, in round 21.

Boyd Woodcock (Bute-Paskeville) finished with 15 touches and a goal in the victory.

The Sharks now play North Melbourne in their final minor round match.

Tipsters make perfect scores

Annie Chirgwin, of Edithburgh, and Darren Sawley, of Kadina, have both achieved perfect nine-out-of-nine rounds in the YP Country Times Kadina Retravision AFL tipping competition.

Annie's win came in round 20, when she also nailed the closest margin prediction to claim the $50 prize.

Darren matched the feat the following week, tipping all games correctly and predicting the exact margin in his perfect round 21 tips to also pocket $50.

The $50 prize is awarded most weeks during the season to the tipster who correctly selects every game and records the closest margin.

Bye rounds and finals are excluded.

Kadina concede defeat to rampaging Roosters

“Roxby Bob”

REPORT BY

Bute's junior colts opened the day with a clinical win in perfect football weather, but Kadina hit back in the senior colts with a comfortable victory.

Then the B grade took to the field.

Bute started strongly, booting five goals to one in the first term before Kadina worked its way into the contest.

Old hands Sam Trengove and Jay Pridham made their presence felt, helping Bute hold off a late Kadina surge for a 28-point win.

These matches set the stage for the A grade clash as the crowd swelled and tension rose.

The home side came out firing, leading by 32 points at quarter time.

The intensity lifted further, with 25m penalties handed out regularly. By halftime, Kadina's William Schultz had stamped his authority, supported by Tex Neumann, Tom Paddick and Alex East.

The third term began with the 25m penalties still flowing, and Bute capitalised to keep the scoreboard ticking over.

Heading into the last quarter, the Roosters were well placed for victory, but Kadina threw everything at them.

Tempers flared, with one player from each side sent off.

Billy Harris iced the game for Bute, who finished 43-point winners to cement their finals chances.

Among Bute's best were Isaiah Wilksch and Jonte Hunter-Price, with strong support from Dylan Evans, Angus Hunter-Price, Christian Iannella and Angus Faulkner. In truth, it was a full-team effort with no passengers.

Two minor rounds and counting

Eric "Tippy" Tipwood
REPORT BY

With just two rounds remaining, the Yorke Peninsula Football League A grade ladder is nearly locked in. Moonta sits two games clear on top after a solid win over the Southern Eagles. Now sitting comfortably a couple of games ahead of fourth, Bute secured a top-three spot and a double chance with a win against Kadina. CY Cougars are safely in fifth and flexed their scoring power against Wallaroo. CMS Crows overcame Ardrossan but face tough matchups against Bute and Kadina to close the season — they'll need at least one win to lock in a qualifying final berth.

Round 17 tips

Paskeville v CY Cougars

With two games left, it's all about sharpening form and finding areas for improvement ahead of finals. Cougars welcomed back Luke Trenorden, who casually slotted nine goals. This week presents a step up in competition — a perfect chance to build momentum. Will Trenorden, Ashley Williams and Corey Graham all line up in the forward line? And will it work? Only one way to find out. At the final siren... Cougars by three goals.

Southern Eagles v Ardrossan

Eagles put up a strong fight against Moonta, even leading at halftime. Ardrossan has had a tough couple of weeks, but if the Roos bring their best, this could be a tight contest. Big-bodied midfielders Nathan Allen (Eagles) and Charlie Dowling (Roos) will be key to the outcome. Which midfield can take control? At the final siren... Southern Eagles by a goal.

Kadina v Wallaroo

Kadina makes the short trip to Wallaroo. It's been a challenging stretch for the young Dogs, while Kadina will be looking to pile on a big score heading into finals. Goal-kicking remains the Bloods' Achilles heel — they've scored significantly less than the rest of the top five. At the final siren... Kadina by 10 goals.

CMS Crows v Bute

Match of the round: 2nd v 3rd. Both sides are in strong form. CMS Crows thrive in the open spaces of Minlaton, but Bute also boasts a team of "astronauts" who love space. This one promises to be fascinating. Crows have a slight edge in midfield depth, while Bute's back six are a tighter unit than the Crows' defenders. Bute spreads its goal-kicking load, while the Crows rely on one player to snag a handful. At the final siren... Crows by a goal. Moonta has the bye.

Coach's nine-goal haul powers Cougars past Wallaroo

YPFL B GRADE... Caine Kaiser, Wallaroo, flies over the back of Alex Greenslade, CY Cougars, to spoil a marking attempt.

YPFL B GRADE... Isaac Elliott, Wallaroo, loses the ball as he is tackled by Connor Briggs, CY Cougars.

“Yapper”
REPORT BY

A damp morning hinted at a wet, overcast day, but the first signs of spring emerged when the sun broke through to warm the afternoon.

For Wallaroo, both junior colts and senior colts recorded convincing wins.

It was disappointing to see the Cougars' colts sides — especially the under 17s — struggling for numbers. Such low participation is a concern.

The B grade side started as favourite but still needed a win to keep its finals hopes alive. Cougars challenged early, getting on top of the game. After lifting in the second quarter, the Dogs controlled the rest of the match.

Best for Wallaroo were Todd Summerton and Glenn Bretten, while Max Daniel and Craig Wakefield stood out for the Cougars.

Congratulations also to Bulldog Tate Kay, who played his 50th game — a young forward with great potential.

In the A grade, Cougars entered as clear favourites, with many expecting the result to be a foregone conclusion.

At this stage, the hosts' coaches were focusing on player development, and young Farren Finn and Elijah Vainui-Yeates both made their first appearances in the seniors.

Cougars started strongly, running riot through the midfield and targeting Luke Trendorden up forward in his return from a knee injury. Their forward line had too much quality for the Dogs' defenders.

Doug Greig and Trent Heffernan were hard to contain in the midfield, giving their forwards plenty of opportunities. Tom Luck was solid in the ruck for Wallaroo, but the Dogs' forward entries needed work, allowing Central Yorke's defenders to rebound.

On a positive note, the Doggies lifted their attack on the ball, pushing it deeper into the forward line. Without a tall target, however, entries often became chaotic, leading to a few scrappy behinds and missed chances.

The Cougars ran out comfortable winners, with coach Trenorden booting nine goals in his return match. Flynn Briggs and Cooper Jarrett also hit the scoreboard, while Doug Greig was best through the midfield. For Wallaroo, captain Harry Errington impressed in both defence and midfield, with strong games also from Zak Cuthill and Brooklyn Wood.

Undermanned Crows caw as depth delivers dominant win

Crows scribe
REPORT BY

Although understrength, the CMS Crows' depth and work rate were on full display at Minlaton, in perfect conditions, powering them to a commanding win over Ardrossan.

Even with key players missing, the home side's midfield dominance and relentless pressure proved too much for the visitors.

From the outset, the Crows were frenetic, with Jake Cook, Jack Matchett and Henry Facy setting the tone.

When Cook slotted the Crows' fifth goal, the question became "by how much" rather than "who will win?"

Ardrossan captain Charlie Dowling willed himself into contests, kicking a goal and creating others with support from Matt Easter and Charlie Kirchner.

Louis Green and Sam Potter also drove Ardrossan's momentum shift as the first quarter progressed.

Refocused after the break, the Crows' midfield — led by Jacob Hickman, Mavrik Harper-Zerna, Matchett and Kai Newbold — lifted their work rate.

CMS CROWS V ARDROSSAN

Played at Minlaton Oval

CMS CROWS	5.3	10.7	15.12	21.16	(142)
ARDROSSAN	3.3	5.4	5.5	6.6	(42)

BEST - CMS Crows: O Carthy, F Betterman, J Matchett, H Litster, E Dortmund-Sansbury; Ardrossan: C Dowling, D Lillecrapp, C Kirchner, S Pfeiffer, D Fitzsimons, L Green.

GOALS - CMS Crows: J Matchett 6, H Litster 3, J Hickman 2, F Agnew, H Aldenhoven, F Betterman, J Cook, E Dortmund-Sansbury, H Facy, M Harper-Zerna, K Newbold, C Saunders, J Tidswell; Ardrossan: C Dowling, C Kirchner 2, M Easter, D Fitzsimons.

In a rare forward entry, Ardrossan's Dylan Fitzsimons kicked a classy goal.

Dowling, along with Hugo Gibson, kept competing despite Ardrossan lacking a key target up forward. Dowling's tireless running and late goal made him best-on-ground for the first half.

The Crows completely dominated the third quarter, producing 10 scoring shots to Ardrossan's one.

Their tall forwards struggled to convert early, before Finn Betterman broke through mid-quarter.

The footy was hard but fair, with centre clearances split evenly.

The final term began with a flurry of whistles, and Ardrossan was reduced to 16 players for 10 minutes — far from ideal when trailing by 10 goals.

To their credit, the Roos fought on, with Kirchner goaling and briefly catching the Crows' defence off guard. But the home side quickly regained control, running in waves and rewarding Matchett's positive leading.

Ardrossan never waved the white flag, but the Crows' depth proved overwhelming.

YPFL JUNIOR COLTS... Shanaid Sansbury, Ardrossan, reaches to pick up the ball in front of Noah Macgowan, CMS Crows.

YPFL JUNIOR COLTS... Benji Williams, Ardrossan, about to take a mark in front of Jakob Hoyle, CMS Crows.

YPFL JUNIOR COLTS... Lowan Coe, CMS Crows, kicks at and misses the ball as he is tackled by Seth Colliver, Ardrossan.

YPFL JUNIOR COLTS... Charlie Borgmeyer, CMS Crows, winds up to kick a goal against Ardrossan.

Gallant Eagles push ladder leaders before Moonta finishes strong

"Gazman"
REPORT BY

STHN EAGLES V MOONTA

Played at Yorketown Oval

MOONTA	3.6	5.8	12.10	18.12	(120)
STHN EAGLES	4.4	7.6	12.7	14.7	(91)

BEST - Moonta: T Hancocks, S Gregory, P Fry, M Appleton, O Mullins, R Maitland; STHN Eagles: B Taheny, J Redden, D Redden, W Goldsmith, J Heinrich-Smith, N Allen.

GOALS - Moonta: J Warmington 6, L Slack 3, T Hancocks, B Steer, J Turner 2, C Angie, P Fry, G Hall; STHN Eagles: N Allen, G Bond, J Redden 3, J Barlow 2, J Poulton, B Robertson, M Sanderson.

Southern Eagles took the fight to ladder-leading Moonta for three quarters at Yorketown on Saturday, but the visitors' class and cleaner ball use in the final term sealed a 29-point win.

In perfect conditions for football, the home side came out firing, hitting Moonta hard — both physically and on the scoreboard.

Ruck Jarred Redden gave the Eagles first use, while Bernard Taheny set the tone in the centre.

Their fierce attack on both ball and player unsettled Moonta, who struggled to find answers to the pressure.

Eagles led at both quarter-time and halftime, showing they can match it with the likely finalists in 2025.

Tom Hancocks, Seth Gregory and Mathew Appleton battled hard, but too few teammates were able to match their intensity.

With just three points separating the sides at the last change, the stage was set for a thrilling finish.

But Moonta gained the early ascendancy in the final term.

After three quarters of taking the contest up to the ladder leaders, the Eagles began to tire.

Ryley Maitland was influential in the middle for Moonta, while Jayga Warmington capitalised up forward, finishing with six goals. Dan Redden and Wes Goldsworthy were strong in defence for the Eagles but couldn't stem Moonta's momentum.

Moonta's midfield stood tall in the final quarter, their cleaner ball movement proving the difference.

They sealed the match with a 29-point victory, while the Eagles were gallant in defeat.

YPNA E GRADE... Carly Whittaker, Ardrossan, stretches to defend a shot at goal by Sienna McDonnell, CMS Crows.

A grade
Wallaroo v CY Cougars
Wallaroo came out with a strong start. Former teammates Izzy Glasgow and Jo Davey were a match for height and strength. Glasgow and GA Emily Ramsey put up accurate shots, while Wallaroo's mid-court defensive pressure caused several turnovers against the Cougars. Wallaroo pulled away despite the best efforts and several interceptions from Cougars C Laura Trenorden. Quarter time: Wallaroo 12, CY Cougars 5.
Wallaroo pulled away further in the second quarter. Tight contests in the midcourt between Wallaroo's Bonnie Summerton and Natalia-Rose Bagnato, and Cougar's Prue Brind and Laura Trenorden, were well fought. Cougars GA Molly Bruhn kept them in the game with some long bombs. Halftime: 22-18.
Cougars clawed back a couple more in the third as the team developed more consistent shooting accuracy and cohesiveness. The scores were tied at some points in the quarter, but Wallaroo led at three-quarter time, 32-30.
In the fourth, Cougars GD Jada Pedler took several impressive intercepts to turn the ball over. Cougars WA Prue Brind gave strong direction to the play in the circle and fed the ball into her shooters. Wallaroo missed Glasgow's height in its goal circle, with Jo Davey able to dominate. The Cougars came back and, after a few minutes of goal-for-goal play, they broke away to win 42-40.
CMS Crows v Ardrossan
Saturday marked the first official match played on the brand-new Minlaton netball courts and, despite the excitement, the weather brought its own challenge with steady rain falling for the entire game.
The slippery conditions tested both sides' ball-handling skills, but CMS adapted quickly, showcasing clean ball movement and sharp, quick attacking play from the outset.
CMS got off to a flying start, capitalising on an early turnover to slot the first three goals of the match.
Their attacking combination settled quickly, moving the ball with precision and speed despite the wet court.
Ardrossan found rhythm late in the quarter, but CMS's early dominance set the tone. Quarter time: CMS Crows 14, Ardrossan 8.
An early blow for Ardrossan at the start of the second came when GK Kim Langley, who had been matching up strongly on Alanna Barrand, was forced from the court with injury. This created a challenging reshuffle for Ardrossan's lineup. CMS took full advantage, pushing their lead out significantly with accurate shooting and relentless mid-court pressure, even as the rain made passing tricky. Halftime score: CMS Crows 33, Ardrossan 12.
At the beginning of the third, Ardrossan made changes, with young Caitlyn Wheare stepping into the goal circle alongside Alexa Simmons, who lifted her game to become Ardrossan's leading scorer. Despite their efforts, CMS's defensive unit executed a box defence, making it difficult for Ardrossan to find a clear pass into the circle under pressure. Three-quarter time: CMS 50, Ardrossan 19.
CMS continue to dominate in the last quarter, with Elle Moss and Felicity Kemp seamlessly feeding the shooting pair of Bronwyn Farrow and Barrand. The slick connections — impressive given the conditions — allowed CMS to extend the margin even further.
Final scores: CMS Crows 70, Ardrossan 25.
Bute v Kadina
The sun was out, but the court was a touch slippery for the early timeslot.
Third-placed Kadina had a full team for only the second time this season and needed to bring its best effort to challenge ladder leader Bute on its home court.
Bute C Emma Taylor started the game with the pass, but Kadina managed a quick turnover before Bute GK Demi O'Brien won the ball back to convert the first goal. Both teams took time to settle, with a few yardward passes early.
Kadina defenders Georgie Garrard and Emma Chapman worked well to rebound missed shots and limit Bute's shooting attempts. O'Brien and GD Olivia Dunn read the ball well, earning important tips that resulted in Kadina turnovers. Kadina GA Kayla Russel shot accurately, and Kadina went into the first break two goals ahead: Kadina 11, Bute 9.
Kadina C Monique Manners started the second quarter, but Bute grabbed an early turnover and scored the first four goals through GA Montana Briggs. Bute's defenders ramped up the pressure, forcing more Kadina turnovers. Kadina swapped Garrard and Chapman mid-quarter to try to disrupt Bute's attacking flow. The home side proved the cleaner team for the term, outscoring Kadina 15-9. Halftime: Bute 24, Kadina 20.
Bute went into the second half unchanged, while Kadina shuffled positions — Manners moved to WA, captain Sophie Driver into C, and Nikkita Aldridge came into WD. Bute took the centre pass and converted through GS Marissa Hewett. Both teams kept the pressure on, forcing held-ball turnovers at both ends. Kadina went on a run to level the scores, then hit the front. Three-quarter time: 34-34.
Bute started with the pass and a quick goal from Briggs, who had been accurate all day. The Roosters capitalised on Kadina errors to go two up, but Kadina responded to draw level with 10 minutes to go. Bute's strong defence forced Kadina to reset play before feeding the ball into goalies Neve Smart and Russel. The lead changed several times before Kadina put Alex Wehr into GD with five minutes left, adding fresh legs. However, the top side showed its class, outscoring Kadina by six in the final term to seal a hard-fought win: Bute 49, Kadina 43.

D grade
CMS Crows v Ardrossan
In freezing weather with light rain early on, CMS Crows and Ardrossan braved the elements, Crows securing a dominant 54-19 win.
The match began in wet, slippery conditions that tested both teams' ball control and footwork. In a key early change, Zoe Weir came off and Kristy May took over in goals for Crows midway through the first quarter in a sharp tactical move. Crows came out strong, leading 16-2 at the first break.
Crows' Charlotte Burke was instrumental in the centre, driving with determination and feeding the goalies with sharp, quick passes. Crows GA May played a vital leadership role, providing direction and composure through the midcourt and into the circle, helping the team extend its lead to 30-6 by halftime.
A brief rain shower in the first half cleared up after the break. Despite the Roos' efforts to convert under pressure, they struggled against the Crows' tight defence. Shantelle Modra and Tayah Dunstone were relentless in the back, collecting stray balls and shutting down Ardrossan's forward momentum.
Ardrossan E grade players Carly Whittaker and Sienna Lawrie stepped up admirably in the D grade, offering clean leads and smart passing under pressure. Plenty of guidance and bodywork from senior players helped Ardrossan stay in the game.
By the final break, the Crows had pulled away 43-13 and didn't let up, finishing with a convincing 54-19 victory.
It was a solid team effort in challenging conditions, with plenty of young talent shining through for CMS.
E grade
Bute v Kadina
Kadina won the toss and came out strong. Goalies Airlie Blue Michalanney and Eva Schilling moved and shot well. Mikayla Green (Bute) got her hands on the ball, but Kadina was quick to convert goals.
In the second quarter, it became apparent Kadina was having some difficulty staying on their feet in the slippery conditions. However, this did not slow their momentum, with Ruby Petherick shooting some brilliant goals. At halftime, Kadina held a strong lead, 22-8.
In the third quarter, the Michalanney duo — Airlie Blue and Ruby Rose — along with Eleanor Francis, fed the ball well into the goal circle, and Kadina continued to shoot accurately. Shayla Bettess shot some great goals for Bute, while Imogen Cowie picked off several brilliant intercepts in GD. Montana Toole and Zanel Nolte were strong and reliable in defence for Kadina.
Bute tried hard all game, but Kadina finished comfortable winners: Kadina 45, Bute 13.

Love me an upset round!

“The Benchwarmer”
REPORT BY

Well, well, well... Didn't we witness some exciting games of netball on the weekend, including a win I never saw coming — kudos to the Southern Eagles!

To start, the match went as I was expecting and, despite having a couple of outs, Moonta led by six goals at quarter time. However, Eagles shook their feathers and came out firing in the second to only be one down at halftime.

The game went goal-for-goal after that with an umpiring call in the dying seconds allowing Eagles a shot on goal and the win — it was like they had won the grand final!

Moonta is going to have to step it up a couple of gears to even make finals now let alone be a serious finals contender.

After getting demolished by the CMS Crows, the Ardrossan Roos couldn't believe their eyes Saturday night when they realised that, thanks to the Eagles, they are still in with a very good finals chance.

However, losing their key players to pregnancy hasn't helped their cause and the way Eagles are playing I think that will squash those finals hopes.

In other exciting news, Wallaroo held CY Cougars accountable for four quarters with only a two-goal deficit and Kadina stood strong against Bute, opening the door to belief that the Bloods could go all the way this season.

I love when it's exciting until the end!

Round 17 tips
Paskeville v CY Cougars
It just hasn't been Pasky's year. After a complete change in line up, the new-look team took some time to gel together, in part due to player absences.

Then, once the Magpies finally did settle a line-up, they have been hit with injury.

Likewise, Cougars started the season without the depth they normally have and have also been affected by player outs. This could actually be a fairly tight tussle with nothing but pride on the line.

At the final whistle... Pasky by five.

Southern Eagles v Ardrossan
Match of the round right here with the Roos making a last-ditch bid for the top four.

Things started swimmingly for Ardrossan, normally a cellar dweller. Kate Pfeiffer led the way and star recruit Sophie Thornton had many hoping for a finals appearance for the first time in a long time.

However, family is more important than netball and it is luck of the draw when that comes into play.

Despite these losses and now an injury to key defender Kim Langley, there have been some real shining lights for the Roos with young Alexa Simmons really stepping up to the plate and Caitlyn Wheare playing two games most weeks — E grade, then B grade and now A grade.

The future looks bright!

Likewise, Southern Eagles have really solidified as a team this year. The addition of Meg Day has been handy as well as the return of club stalwarts.

Things are coming together nicely at the end of the season for the Eags, if they'd played this well earlier, they could have been finals contenders!

At the final whistle... Southern Eagles by five.

YPNA A GRADE... Joanne Davey, CY Cougars, stays focused as she defends a shot at goal by Natalia-Rose Bagnato, Wallaroo.

Wallaroo v Kadina
Kadina Bloodhounds are building at just right the time. Playing coach Monique Manners finally has a full suite of players to choose from but with that comes big decisions. She made the right ones on the weekend, holding Bute accountable until the last half of the last quarter.

I love a good shake up and Kadina could be the one to do it.

Wallaroo lost Izzy Glasgow on Saturday and if she is unable to return Saturday, this game could blow out.

At the final whistle... Kadina by 18.

CMS Crows v Bute
In what will likely be a grand final prelude, is it better to get the win now or in September? Me thinks September.

So, it will be interesting to see how this one plays out — do the coaches go hard for a win to get in the heads of the other team, or do you play low key, and maybe go in as the underdog and give the other team a false sense of security?

At the end of the day, I don't think it is in either team's nature to go low key so we will be in for a cracker of a match.

At the final whistle... Crows by 10.

We wish good luck to all players attending the SA Men’s Sand Greens Championship at Yankalilla Golf Club over the weekend. Remember, everyone is welcome to join in for an enjoyable round at Yorketown. TFM

SHOOTING

Maitland Rifle Club: Results 9-8-25 — Twelve keen members assembled at the 700-yard mound in a light drizzle for the first range of the Jim Francis Memorial Trophy. This trophy is one of two trophies shot through the year as a one-day format consisting of rounds at 700, 600 and 500 yards. These are always hotly contested and a highlight of the shooting year. Once the drizzle lifted, the breeze kicked in and made for a tricky first detail. Michael Dayman recorded a 50.4 with Bill Gillis’s 58 and Chris Tucker’s 57 the best of the F class shooters. After another succulent My Butcher meat tray barbecue lunch, shooters moved to 600 yards; the winds had moderated enough to allow for some better scores. F open shooters Greg Bentick and David Hindmarsh scored 60.4 and 60.6 respectively. At the final 500 yards range, the flags hung limply. High scoring was expected, and six members recorded possibles. Lynton Wakefield and Bill Gillis both had excellent 60.9s, David Hindmarsh 60.8, Greg Bentick 60.6, Jeff Dayman 50.6 and John Habets 60.3. Top off-rifle: target rifle, Michael Dayman 148.11; F open, Greg Bentick 176.11; F standard A, Bill Gillis 176.17; F std B, Chris Tucker 172.7. Handicap points: Greg Bentick 100.11 (53 per cent used), Michael Dayman 100.11 (67 per cent), Chris Tucker 100.7 (67 per cent). Greg Bentick won the trophy and runner-up was Michael Dayman on percentage used. This week we venture to Wallaroo for the first stage of the 4&5 District Rifle Association Findlay Shield with the 4&5 DRA AGM at 10.30am. Bring a plate of afternoon tea to share. A/JD

Maitland Pistol and Shooting Club annual presentation dinner and AGM

Maitland Pistol and Shooting Club held its annual presentation dinner at the Ardrossan Hotel on Saturday, July 19. President David Porter welcomed members and visitors, and everyone enjoyed a pleasant catch up over a meal. Memorial trophies L. K. Stock Memorial, Ray Smith Memorial, John Newbold Memorial, E. A. Kleeman Memorial and Annie's Memorial were presented, as well as the Life Members' Trophy, Barry Murray, Gary Thomson, Patron's, Vice-patron's, President's, Captain's and Scorer's trophies. Individual trophy winners for rifle included David Edinburgh, Barry Murray, Craig Brennan, Leon Taylor and Mike Fuss. For the pistol events, trophies were awarded to David Porter, Ian Hicks, Matthew Hicks, Leon Taylor, Howard Linke, Lorraine Linke, Craig Brennan, Ruth Lombladt, Klaus Becker and Lynton Wakefield. David Edinburgh (rifle) and David Porter (pistol) received the club championship trophies. The club thanks local businesses and individuals that sponsored trophies (see personal notices page).

AGM

The club's annual general meeting was held on Saturday, July 26. Re-elected as president, David Porter gave a positive report of the past year's activities, the highlight being the completion of the ramp, providing a safe and disability-compliant pathway from the clubhouse to the ranges, benefiting members and visitors. The ramp was completed in time for the state titles, which the club hosted in October.

MAITLAND SHOOTING... New Maitland Pistol and Shooting Club life members Ruth Lombladt and Geoff Lamshed with president David Porter (middle).

The 26th annual open shoot was held in March while other events included the Mid North championships at Blanchetown and the annual Christmas shoot. Members attended numerous open competitions at other clubs throughout the state, many achieving awards for their success. The passing of past patron John Wundersitz was acknowledged; his family originally provided the land for the clubhouse and surrounding facilities. Before the meeting concluded, David announced that two members were to be awarded life membership. The first, Geoff Lamshed, has been a member for 53 years and, soon after joining the club in 1972, was elected vice-captain and in successive years took on the positions of captain, vice-president, vice-president and treasurer, and then president. Later, he held the position of scorer. Through these years, he was a keen contributor to club activities and inter-club visits, et cetera. The second life membership awarded was to Ruth Lombladt, who has been a member since 1997. When the club open shoots began in 2000, Ruth became involved in the scoring, using her own computer in an old caravan at the back of the clubhouse. As the open shoots progressed, Ruth took over the canteen management in 2011 and continued until this year, but has now hung up her apron. Both life membership awards were well deserved. After the AGM, the E. A. Kleeman Memorial trophy shoot was held, a 50m, 20-shot centre-fire pistol self-handicap event, which Geoff Lamshed won. The day concluded with afternoon tea.

Hard-fought NYP veterans match at Port Broughton

Port Broughton Golf Club hosted Northern Yorke Peninsula Veteran Golfers Association on Thursday, August 7, for the Ross Partington Memorial Shield match.

The late Ross Partington was a stalwart of the Port Broughton club and spent hours each day mowing fairways, fixing machinery in the shed and on general course maintenance.

Grant Donovan won the event from a field of 34.

A grade: winner Geoff Tapps 35 pts, r-up Andrew Smith 34, 3rd David Wall 32 c/b Phil Bickley.

B grade: winner Darryl Dietman 38 (ineligible to win the shield as he hadn't played three rounds in the past 12 months), r-up Dennis Emmerton 34, 3rd David "Doc" Holman 32.

C grade: winner John Shakespear 36, r-up Brian Searle 33 c/b Geoff Bussenschutt.

Seniors (75 and over): Alan Steff 31.

President's encouragement award: Les Rochester c/b Tony Jamieson.

NTP: 6/15, Don Beitz; 7/16,

NYP VETERANS... Captain David Wall presents the Ross Partington Memorial Shield to winner Grant Donovan.

Les Rochester.

Long putts: 9/18, John Shakespear; 4/13, Russell Sard.

Most fairways: Andrew Smith 15.

Birdies: Terry Gloede, Russell Sard, Geoff Tapps, Trevor Obst, Grant Donovan, Dennis Emmerton, Don Beitz, Jim Wheeler, Steve Solomon, Simon Manners, Rick Haase, Andrew Smith, Phil Bickley.

Lucky cards: Alan Steff, Phil Bickley, Jim Wheeler, Vivienne Lambert, Grant Donovan, Dennis Emmerton.

The next game is the SA Veterans Sand Greens Championship at Wirrabara Golf Club, 9.30am for 10am tee-off on Thursday, August 21.

Pony express returns to Moonta

The Chappy Three Hour Pony Express is back at the Moonta Dirt Bike Club on August 24 after being on hold due to the COVID-19 pandemic and insurance woes suffered by clubs throughout Australia.

The event has been running for 10 years and is now in its 11th season at the club.

Anthony Chapman has sponsored the events throughout and even won in 2016 with Jake Wallace.

The 7km course takes in the MX track and an enduro loop in the scrub. It consists of sandy sections, rock and hill climbs, and twists through the property.

This event usually attracts riders from throughout South Australia.

The 50cc class will start at 9.30am sharp.

Juniors and intermediate riders will line up at 10.15am and finish at 11.30am.

Seniors will start at noon and end at 3pm.

An iron man class will be included in the senior class this year for the solo riders.

Good luck to all riders and feel free to bring a partner.

For any enquiries phone 8825 2926.

Top team Old Bags had its first loss in 12 weeks, being outplayed by Roulettes, who all played well; final scores Roulettes 20 d Old Bags 14.

Cobalts and Cousin Jacks' game was close all the way through, coming down to the last bowl for the result, Cobalts winning by two, 14-12.

Mascots and Triple As also had a tight game and this also came down to the last bowl which Mascots won, making it a 12-12 tie.

Swifties had some excellent shots against second-placed Rubies but Rubies played some great team bowls, winning 29-8.

If space, comfort and privacy are at the top of your wish list, this beautifully presented four-bedroom brick veneer home delivers all three — and more.

Set on 4992 square metres of landscaped grounds, it offers a rare combination of generous indoor living and resort-style outdoor spaces, Brenton Brind from Wardle Co Real Estate says.

Inside, the thoughtfully designed floor plan feels both functional and welcoming.

The master suite includes a walk-in robe and private ensuite, while bedrooms two and three also feature walk-in robes.

The fourth bedroom offers flexibility as either a guest room or study, adaptable to lifestyle needs.

Multiple living zones cater for every occasion.

The formal lounge and dining area, with its decorative bulkhead, is ideal for entertaining.

The open-plan kitchen with pantry flows seamlessly into a bright meals and family area — the heart of the home.

The main bathroom is fitted with a bath, shower, vanity and separate toilet, complemented by a well-appointed laundry, linen press and storeroom for added practicality.

Outdoors, an expansive undercover entertaining area provides the perfect setting for family gatherings, while a double carport under the main roof and a separate pergola add convenience and charm.

A 12.2m x 7.6m powered shed with concrete floor and an additional 6m x 6m shed cater to storage and hobby needs.

The fully fenced backyard is framed by established gardens, and a sparkling swimming pool with timber decking invites relaxation.

A rainwater tank and 3.5kW solar system add to the home's appeal, combining comfort with efficiency.

Located in a peaceful setting yet close to town services, this property offers an exceptional opportunity for families seeking space to grow without compromising convenience, Brenton says.

“Contact Wardle Co Real Estate to arrange your private inspection and discover how easily this home could become your family's next chapter,” he says.

Fatigue culture costing lives

PUSHING through fatigue to get jobs done on the farm is one of the most under-recognised yet deadly risks in agriculture, according to Farmsafe Australia.

As part of its Second Chances — Who Knows How Many You'll Get campaign, Farmsafe is placing a spotlight on fatigue and its overlooked impact on farm safety.

Farmsafe Australia chair Felicity Richards said fatigue had long been normalised across the agricultural industry.

"These are the jobs we push through at the end of the day — the early mornings after late nights, the must-do tasks in the middle of sowing, harvest or shearing," she said.

"We don't think twice about the 18-hour day. We shrug off brain fog, forgetfulness, dropping things, or zoning out as just part of the job — but when you're tired, your decision-making suffers.

"In this environment, mistakes can be fatal."

The message is simple: the "just keep going" mentality is putting lives at risk.

The 2025 Safer Farms Agricultural Injury and Fatality Report revealed a sobering statistic — 72 fatalities on farms in 2024, the highest in more than 20 years and more than double the 32 deaths recorded in 2023.

Serious injuries have also remained consistently high for more than a decade.

Ms Richards said fatigue was a hidden factor in many of these incidents.

"It doesn't always make it into the official report, but talk to any farmer and they'll tell you about the time they nearly rolled a vehicle, misjudged a gate, forgot a safety step or lost their footing after days with little sleep," she said.

"Fatigue is the invisible risk we've trained ourselves to ignore."

Farmsafe is encouraging a cultural shift: to see fatigue as a safety

RISKY RIDES... Side by side vehicles have overtaken tractors and quad bikes as the leading cause of on-farm fatalities in a single year, and Farmsafe Australia is urging users to wear helmets, use seatbelts and follow other safety precautions.

threat, not a personal weakness.

"Too often, pushing through exhaustion is worn like a badge of honour," Ms Richards said.

"But real strength is knowing when to pause; backing yourself to rest, call in help, or wait for daylight — that's a safety decision, not a vulnerability."

Farmsafe is urging practical changes such as adjusting workloads, improving rosters and planning ahead for peak pressure seasons.

Open conversations within teams and families about fatigue and warning signs are also vital.

"If you manage staff or contractors, your choices matter," Ms Richards said.

"You set the tone — in how you work, how you rest, and how you talk about risk."

Near misses, she added, should be shared and learned from, not just dismissed as lucky escapes.

Side-by-side deaths top the list

For the first time in Australian farm safety reporting, side-by-side vehicles have overtaken tractors and quadbikes as the leading cause of on-farm fatalities in a single year.

In 2024, 14 people died in SSV-related incidents, compared with 10 in quadbike accidents and eight involving tractors.

Despite being promoted as safer alternatives to quads — due to seatbelts, roll cages and stability — SSVs are proving dangerous when basic safety protocols are not followed.

"Too often, seatbelts go unused, helmets aren't worn, vehicles are overloaded or used on steep terrain without training," Ms Richards said.

"It's not enough to switch vehicles — we need to change behaviours."

Some of the key reminders of Farmsafe Australia's Second Chances — Who Knows How Many You'll Get campaign include:

- Make time for the plan, not just the job — a short pre-job check can prevent long-term consequences
- Do not let deadlines drown out danger — one honest conversation beats one emergency phone call
- Build in time for safety — schedule backup and build buffer days into pressure periods
- Call the huddle — a quick check-in can reveal risks someone else might not see.

Catch OF THE WEEK

A FIRST... Logan Boxall enjoyed a memorable day out with Dad and Pop in October, reeling in his first-ever whiting. While sorting through our files, we discovered a handful of "Catch of the Week" photos we hadn't yet shared. Send yours to editorial@ypct.com.au — we promise to keep a closer eye on them and get them printed soon!

HOT FISHING TIPS

with Greg James www.gregjamesfishing.com.au

Welcome to the column with all the hot tips for fishing around Yorke Peninsula; contact Greg by email at greg@gregjamesfishing.com.au.

Recipe, Manila spicy salmon fish cakes
— Ingredients: 300g cooked salmon (in pieces), 2 eggs, 2 tbsp soy sauce, 2 garlic cloves, 1 tbsp ginger, quarter cup red onion, finely diced, 2 tbsp lemon juice, half cup panko crumbs, quarter cup sesame seeds, dash of cooking oil, 1 chopped chilli.
Preparation: Gently combine salmon, soy sauce, garlic, ginger and chopped red onion in a bowl. Add lemon juice and eggs. In a second bowl, add panko and sesame seeds. Add cooking oil to a fry pan and heat to medium. Roll and flatten each fish cake and coat with panko mix on both sides. Pan fry each fish cake for about two minutes on each side until golden brown. Serve with green onions, chopped red chilli peppers and a spicy dipping sauce.

Wallaroo: The jetty produced salmon trout mid and late week as the weather turned fine, clear, calm and sunny. Boat crews tried their luck for King George whiting, squid and garfish but most came back with empty catch bag.

The algal bloom continues to spread north, towards the giant cuttlefish birthing ground at False Bay.

Moonta Bay/Port Hughes: Empty jetties and a near-deserted boat ramp car park reflect some of the quietest fishing conditions locals can recall. Fishers in big boats headed well south to try for whiting and squid and a few shore-based fishers gave salmon trout and flathead a try along local beaches on the high tide.

Port Victoria/Point Turton: In magic weekend weather, charter boat crews managed to catch whiting from their secret spots along this part of the gulf. Local jetties have been quiet but sprat tommies (Australian herring) have been sighted. Garfish, normally in good numbers around Port Minlacowie, are thin.

Stenhouse Bay/Marion Bay: Local boat, shore and jetty-based fishing is on again, off again. Boat crews struggled to catch a decent feed, with people wary of eating anything from the usually pristine waters. Sunday provided great weather for crews running offshore for kingies, red nannygai and blue morwong.

Tight lines and see you next week!

Local talent excels in Queensland

Austinn Lane
JOURNALIST

The School Sport Australia Games have concluded in Queensland after a week of competition, from July 26 to August 2.

Yorke Peninsula athletes shone, with Stella Hewett, of Bute, winning gold in netball and Hunter Mumford, of Wallaroo, claiming silver in football.

Charlotte Keleher (Moonta) also represented the state, playing in the 16 and under girls basketball competition, and her father Grant Keleher coached the team.

Although the Kelehers and team didn't bring home a medal, Charlotte was the side's second leading scorer.

Hewett and the 15 and under girls state team brought home gold from the games, a remarkable achievement for all involved.

"Being my first state representation, I was quite nervous for the whole event," Hewett said.

"I was expecting to get beat one on one by my opponents, but I feel I held my own pretty well.

"We had a lot of early mornings to prepare for the day ahead, we played two games most days."

The games had shortened quarters, which Hewett said made the game more fast paced and energetic.

"It was all very intense, fast paced and physical, it was different to what I have experienced."

She said she was overwhelmed to claim gold, defeating Victoria in the final.

"I was proud of the team for their efforts, we had lost to New South Wales earlier in the week and drew with Western Australia, so we knew we were beatable."

Wallaroo Football Club young gun Hunter Mumford competed in the 15-and-under boys Australian Rules football tournament, bringing home silver after his side's 17-point loss to Victoria in the final.

"We went undefeated in the matches before the finals," Mumford said.

"We had a close win against Western Australia, but then had some more comfortable wins against New South Wales, ACT and Queensland."

"The standard was very competitive and elite, I was playing half back but also rotating through the midfield."

Being a bottom age player and one of the youngest in the side, Mumford felt he stood up when he had to and played his role well.

"The grand final was really cool, it was loud when we ran out, people were supporting us, the atmosphere was great," he said.

"It was an amazing experience and I thank the whole community who helped make it possible."

AFL... Flying high against Port Adelaide last season, George Hewett takes a great contested mark.
