RATs descend on peninsula

REPORT BY

RAPID antigen test collection points are now open in Wallaroo and Maitland.

Both locations are integrated with the hospitals' Covid-19 PCR testing sites and are open seven days a week.

Tests can be collected from Wallaroo between 1.30pm and 2.30pm, while the Maitland point will be open from 9.30am to noon, and 1pm to 3pm.

Times may vary, with any changes to be posted on the Yorke and Northern Local Health Network Facebook page.

If you are a close contact, you can access a kit of two free rapid antigen tests from a collection point but it is still strongly encouraged to get a PCR test if you have symptoms.

"You must register before collecting your kits from the RAT collection point," an SA Health spokesperson said.

"If you are not a close contact, rapid antigen tests are sold commercially in supermarkets and pharmacies.

"You should get a PCR test as soon as you develop any Covid-19 symptoms and are not a close contact."

The openings come as the 2022 school year officially began for children of essential workers yesterday (Monday, January 31).

About 76 per cent of Australian Education Union SA branch members voted last week to postpone proposed industrial action planned to coincide with the return to school.

Preschool, reception, and years 1, 7, 8 and 12 students will be returning to classrooms tomorrow (Wednesday, February 2).

All other students will learn from home for two weeks with the aim to return all to the classroom by Monday, February 14.

International concerns

I AM concerned at the Ukraine situation especially reports Australia supports the Ukraine position, inferring we might be duty bound to contribute to any West-launched military campaign in the area.

For one, I think Australia should keep right out of it.

England and America are historically quite paranoid about the Russian Bear and seem to take any occasion to take on Russia.

While Russian behaviour is often quite aggressive — even inexcusable — from their viewpoint, and considering commonsense ‘real-politik’, they abhor the constant Western urging of Ukraine to join the Western camp, especially as we know Ukraine was a former Russian territory and is right on the Russian border.

America for years has been irritatingly pushing for its missiles to be based in Poland first and now Ukraine.

Quite reasonably, such behaviour naturally upsets Russia.

Additional England-America moves to have Ukraine join NATO is also understandably unsettling to Russia.

We seem to have forgotten the violent Kennedy-America reaction to the stationing of Russian missiles in Cuba in 1963.

The world was then a hair’s breadth from a nuclear holocaust before the Russians sensibly defused the situation by backing down.

Australia should not be dragged into any foolhardy sponsored war in Eastern Europe, especially with the history of appallingly bungled campaigns we’ve supported since 1945.

In praise of aged care

I AM writing this letter in praise of the hardworking and dedicated staff (young and old) of our local not-for-profit community aged care facilities, namely Parkview.

They have seen our residents — someone’s mum, dad, aunt, uncle, brother or sister — through some very harrowing times with a cheerful and caring persona.

I’m sure I speak for many Moonta folk in saying well done.

Thank you for your efforts.

Backing the incumbent

POLITICS can be a harsh game; it can also be a game where everyone can be very happy with the results.

For most of its time Narungga, or Goyder as it was once, has been a safe electorate for the Liberal Party even when its roads, tourist areas, hospitals, et cetera, weren’t always so well looked after, despite local members’ attempts to support.

Mining became a very hot topic several years ago when the Ardrossan area was selected for copper mining, among other minerals.

With the area being prime agricultural lands, the prospect of this happening was catastrophic to say the least.

The Paskeville district has also suffered from mining company pressure and persistence.

We didn’t want our political representative sitting on the fence about this and our new member, Fraser Ellis, didn’t.

He supported opposition to the Bill, and voted accordingly, which is what his constituents wanted, despite Liberals wanting this Bill to pass.

We have seen new roads, hospital improvements, the end of a moratorium on GM crops, reforms of land access for mining companies, tourism promotion, coastal protection plans, boat ramps, amongst just a few things happening in the electorate, and help for many with personal problems. All these received Fraser Ellis’s very solid support.

We see so much happening on YP that could have happened before, and it’s not just because the Liberal Party has been in office.

So we think that despite whoever the Liberal Party or others stand against Fraser Ellis, we want Fraser Ellis in the coming election — we want Fraser to win and we hope he wins well.

OUR VIEW

Gamesmanship or rudeness?

I’VE spent the past two weeks being very athletic.

You can still say you’re athletic if all you’re doing is living through other people’s sporting endeavours, right?

Like many across the country, I’ve had a few late nights watching the tennis.

I think all sporting landscapes are better if we engage with participants and feel like we learn more about them each time they speak, and that they can show their personalities.

It adds to the engagement of the crowd and attracts new viewers, there’s no denying it.

Rightly or wrongly, I associate tennis as a mostly polite sport.

A hush rolls over the crowd as the player gets ready to serve, tempered clapping and cheering erupts after the point has been won and the process repeats.

This Australian Open we’ve seen spectators repeatedly warned by chair umpires to pipe down and even people ejected for making too much noise at inopportune moments.

It’s not all the crowds — the players have also acted up at times.

One of my favourite things about watching sport is the atmosphere of the crowd, the feeling of sharing a moment with thousands of people you don’t actually know.

But the jeering between serves, the applauding of double faults and general rattiness really got on my nerves.

You don’t need to like or support the opposition player/team in a contest, I am fully aware that is not how it works.

The players feed off the electricity of the crowd, but I think at times it descended from gamesmanship to a lack of respect.

How do we encourage engagement without harming the players’ own enjoyment of the match too?

Rules ease slightly

Some restrictions, including around density requirements in hospitality venues, were eased last week.

The restoration of paediatric elective surgery and easing of requirements for QR codes in retail premises were also amongst the changes flagged by Premier Steven Marshall.

Mr Marshall said hospitality density restrictions would now be boosted to 50 per cent indoors and outdoor seated dining and drinking, up from 25 per cent.

“Easing of restrictions has been planned for mid-February but had been brought forward,” he said.

“QR codes are still required for gyms and hospitality, and settings like aged care and hospitals.

“The fitness sector will now be considered for some easing of restrictions.”

The government looked at new modelling which showed it would not produce a second wave or overload hospitals.

“QR codes are being kept because they (SA Health) do declare transmission sites from time to time (so) to be able to send a message as quickly as possible, the QR codes are still useful,” Mr Marshall said.

“But the modellers tell us there will be no second peak here in South Australia coming from the changes in restrictions we have put in place.”

Mr Marshall said there was a continued push towards vaccination, particularly for 5 to 11 year olds.

To book in for a vaccination or booster go online to www.sahealth.sa.gov.au/wps/wcm/connect/public+content/sa+health+internet/conditions/infectious+diseases/covid-19/vaccine/getting+vaccinated/vaccination+hubs.

FLAME Festival sparks interest

FLAME FESTIVAL... Copper Coast Council mayor Roslyn Talbot is encouraging the community to be involved in a new festival showcasing food, lights, art, music and entertainment in May.

YP Council survey for businesses

YORKE Peninsula Council is calling on local businesses to have a say about how council can better support them.

Council launched its business consultation survey yesterday (Monday, January 31) and the results will help inform council's future budget and spend on economic development/business support.

Council acknowledges local businesses are a significant contributor to the economic development of YPC local government area.

In partnership with key stakeholders, council has completed various activities and programs within its functions to assist the growth of businesses within the region.

Business development has been identified as one of the priorities for sustainable economic growth in council's Yorke Peninsula Economic Development and Tourism Strategy 2022-2026.

"We encourage all local businesspeople, from sole traders and small businesses up to larger operations, to participate in council's business consultation survey," Mayor Darren Braund said.

"Business development is one of council's top priorities, and we have implemented various activities and programs to help the growth of businesses within our region.

"However, we want a better understanding of what our local businesses want and need so we can provide the best possible assistance."

The survey will remain open via council's website <https://yorke.sa.gov.au/> until Sunday, February 20.

A NEW festival showcasing food, lights, art, music and entertainment is set to ignite Copper Coast's creativity.

FLAME Festival will be held throughout the three main Copper Coast towns from Friday to Sunday, May 27-29.

The festival is a Copper Coast Council idea to highlight the region's offerings in alternate years to the Kernewek Lowender.

Mayor Roslyn Talbot said council wanted to create another reason for people to come to the area.

"We were successful in some grant funding back in 2020, to run a festival and we want to showcase what the Copper Coast and the community has to offer," Mrs Talbot said.

"We have really worthwhile produce and so many talented artists and entertainers."

Mrs Talbot said the whole community needed to get involved to make the festival a success.

"We are calling on artists and entertainers but we are also hoping local businesses might come on board and host events or even produce their own," she said.

"We really want people to think outside of the box to bring the festival to life on the Copper Coast — almost like an Adelaide Fringe Festival feel — we want to see interesting and quirky."

"It is something we hope the community buys into because it is another great way to attract tourists to the Copper Coast and entice them to stay for the whole weekend."

To register your event for the FLAME Festival program, contact the Copper Coast Visitor Information Centre on 8821 2333 or email visit@coppercoast.sa.gov.au.

Ambos funding boost promised

Patrick Goldsmith
REPORT BY

THE state opposition has pledged an investment of $2.2 million to increase ambulance coverage on Yorke Peninsula.

Labor's election promise includes a new 24/7 emergency crew and new community paramedic in Wallaroo, despite not having a candidate for Narungga.

It's hoped a community paramedic will provide health support across YP while a new emergency crew based at Wallaroo will ease the pressure on the Upper Spencer Gulf, opposition leader Peter Malinauskas said.

Overall, the state Labor Party has pledged to invest $33.1 million in healthcare in the region, should it win the general election on March 19.

Labor candidate for Stuart, covering much of the Upper Spencer Gulf, Andrew Wright, said an upgrade of this nature was long overdue.

"For too long resources across the Port Pirie area have been stretched, with an emergency on the Yorke Peninsula leaving other areas exposed," he said.

"Delivering a 24/7 emergency crew based at Wallaroo will ensure Port Pirie's resources are not stretched so far."

Independent candidate for Narungga Dianah Walter announced her support for local ambulance crews before the Labor funding reveal.

"From a truly local perspective, given the distance and geographical areas required to be covered, there should be consideration given to Yorke Peninsula being resourced with at least two community paramedics, one based in the southern half and one in the northern half," Ms Walter said.

"There are systemic failures, and the system is haemorrhaging.

"This is not the time to apportion blame for what should have been done, it's time for collaboration, compassion and for working together."

Member for Narungga Fraser Ellis said, if re-elected, he'll push to see money repurposed for the Wallaroo Hospital and ensure Port Pirie is removed from the local health network.

Mr Ellis commended the plans by Labor, but lamented the fact it was "ostensibly to ease the burden on the Port Pirie services".

"Wallaroo Hospital desperately needs an upgrade — I have been lobbying the Liberal Government for some time and I will now begin trying to convince the Labor Party of the same," he said.

"I'm tired of Port Pirie being considered the central location for all of our health services.

"Wallaroo Hospital should be the health services hub on the Yorke Peninsula and if I am re-elected that is what I will be unashamedly pushing for just like I have been doing for the past four years."

Women arrested over stolen car on Yorke Peninsula

TWO women were arrested after a police pursuit of a stolen car at Kadina in the early hours of Sunday, January 30.

At about 2am, police received a report of two women stealing items at a service station on Frances Terrace.

They left in a red Suzuki Swift and checks on the registration number revealed the car had been stolen during a break-in at Elizabeth South on Friday morning, January 28.

Kadina patrols spotted the car on Graves Street and pursued the vehicle to the Bute Road after the driver refused to stop.

Police lost contact with the car as it approached Bute.

Patrols searched the area and located the vehicle abandoned at the corner of School Corner and Barunga Gap Roads at Barunga Gap just before 3am.

Police Dog Operations responded from Adelaide to help patrols find the two women.

After an extensive search, Police Dog Stoic located one of the women in a paddock where she was arrested at about 5.40am.

Police then received a call from a resident on Barunga Top Road at about 9.15am advising the second woman was at her property.

Officers attended and she was subsequently arrested.

A 31-year-old woman from Elizabeth South was charged with theft, illegal use of a motor vehicle, dangerous driving to cause police pursuit and driving unlicensed.

She was refused bail and will appear in court.

A 30-year-old Tonsley woman was charged with theft and illegal use of a motor vehicle.

She is expected to be bailed to appear in court at a later date.

Shed break in

Minlaton police reported a shed break in at Curramulka on Friday, January 28.

It is assumed the break-in occurred during the week leading up to January 28 and nothing was stolen from the premise.

CAUGHT... Police Dog Stoic helped locate and arrest a woman at Barunga Gap after a pursuit in Kadina and Bute.

Monika Milka banned again

GAWLER massage therapist and homeopath Monika Milka has been banned from giving advice about Covid-19 and vaccination.

Ms Milka was issued an interim prohibition order against practising in August by the Health and Community Services Complaints Commissioner.

That order was revoked late last month after the conclusion of an investigation into her conduct.

HCSCC Associate Professor Grant Davies received a complaint concerning false statements being published on Monika's Entity Massage Therapy Facebook page about Covid-19 and vaccines.

The investigation found Ms Milka breached clauses 3(1), 3(2)(b) and 11(1) of the Code of Conduct for Certain Health Care Workers.

Ms Milka is now banned from providing health services in respect of health education and/or the provision of information relating to Covid-19 and vaccines and providing advice in relation to the provision of the specified health service of vaccination.

Associate Professor Davies said this was the second prohibition order placed on Ms Milka for providing misleading information on her social media page.

"In February 2016, Ms Milka was also prohibited from suggesting her tonics were able to cure cancer," he said.

"Anyone given treatment information by Ms Milka should know she is required to substantiate the efficacy of any treatments, tonics or services she provides.

"My primary concern will always be ensuring the health and safety of South Australians."

Ogar granted home detention

ANTONY Ogar has been granted home detention bail.

The 58-year-old Port Hughes man appeared in the Adelaide Magistrates Court before Magistrate Smart yesterday (Monday, January 31).

Ms Gerente Ogar was flown to the Royal Adelaide Hospital with life-threatening head injuries, allegedly inflicted by Mr Ogar, on Monday, July 26.

She passed away on Wednesday, July 28.

At his initial court hearing, Mr

Ogar claimed Ms Gerente Ogar fell backwards and hit her head on the floor after she attacked him whilst drunk.

Mr Ogar will next appear in court at 10am on Tuesday, February 22.

Narungga decides 2022

AS the 2022 South Australian general election nears, the Yorke Peninsula Country Times will pose important topics for discussion to the Narungga candidates vying for your vote. This week’s topic is the housing and rental crisis.

Dianah Walter
Independent

OUR healthcare system is in dire straits and, for many, a place to call home is simply out of reach. In the blink of an eye, any one of us is at risk of homelessness.

Think job loss, serious injury or a decline in health, this is not someone else’s problem; it’s our problem.

Peak bodies such as the SA Council of Social Service, Shelter SA and Council on the Ageing SA do much of the heavy lifting for government.

It’s time they, the government, listened!

We need big investments in new public housing, including in regions like ours.

Extra public housing will create jobs and help keep rents down across the market – giving more people money to spend in the local economy.

It’s also time for minimum energy efficiency standards and a mandatory disclosure scheme for all rentals.

Even if people have housing, the cost of heating or cooling can still be crippling.

Our community is ageing.

I support the establishment of a specialised advocacy and housing service to assist vulnerable older people, living in housing stress, to secure ongoing accommodation.

South Australia has the highest stamp duty in Australia. It should be replaced with a broad, equitable land tax.

If elected, my 100 per cent commitment to Narungga is I will fight for you and hold the incoming government to account for all the promises it makes including housing and rental affordability, just in the way I will hold them to account for commitments made about health.

Fraser Ellis
Independent

DURING the past four years, I’ve personally advocated for many locals with housing issues to help find them a safe place to sleep.

Alarming, the issue of housing affordability and availability is an escalating one, compounded with property sale figures at their highest levels in years and a shortage of private rental stock.

Waiting lists for Housing SA properties remain very concerning, and the bottom line is we need to increase our public housing stock.

We also need to improve the turn-around times of vacancies as too often houses are empty for too long due to awaiting maintenance.

I am aware in 2020-21 we had 414 public housing properties within Narungga (367 managed by Housing SA and 47 by Aboriginal Housing) and at any given time an estimated five per cent are empty.

I also advise the number of Housing SA properties across the electorate has not varied greatly for 10 years, despite increased need and regional growth.

For example, in 2011 there were 381 properties; and 398 in 2014.

During my term in office I’ve shared in collective brainstorming with local councils, the SA Housing Authority and RDA Yorke and Mid North in efforts to combat homelessness, a substantial gap between supply of services and community need remains.

We need to continue to support public housing residents so they can aspire to a private rental or purchase.

It’s imperative people are not permanently stuck in Housing SA properties, and they have the opportunity to access private housing in the future.

Kerry White
Pauline Hanson’s One Nation

HOME ownership is an integral part of the Australian dream, but it’s falling out of reach for increasing numbers of people.

Securing rental accommodation has also become much harder.

Housing supply is very short and prices are high, and this has been exacerbated by labour and material shortages in part due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Another important factor impacting housing affordability in South Australia is stamp duty – it’s a major impediment to home ownership because it adds significantly to the cost of homes.

The impact of the housing crisis is keenly felt in regional communities like Narungga.

On Yorke Peninsula, only 0.15 per cent of housing stock is available for rent. How do you get skilled people to fill regional jobs going begging when they have nowhere for their families to live?

One Nation’s policy for housing aims to increase supply, reduce demand and reduce costs in South Australia.

We’ll ban foreign ownership of residential property to increase supply, reduce immigration to sustainable levels to reduce demand, and introduce stamp duty concessions to reduce costs: no stamp duty up to a value of $600,000 for first home buyers, and no stamp duty up to a value of $400,000 for people seeking to downsize.

This will also allow for more Australians to invest in residential property with no overseas competition, increasing the availability of rental accommodation.

Home ownership or secure rental accommodation provide economic security and family stability, and One Nation believes it should be within reach of every Australian.

Storm moves across northern YP

A SLOW-moving thunderstorm moved over parts of northern Yorke Peninsula yesterday evening (Monday, January 31).

Thunderstorms developed over Eyre Peninsula on Monday afternoon and then moved over northern Yorke Peninsula during the evening after sunset.

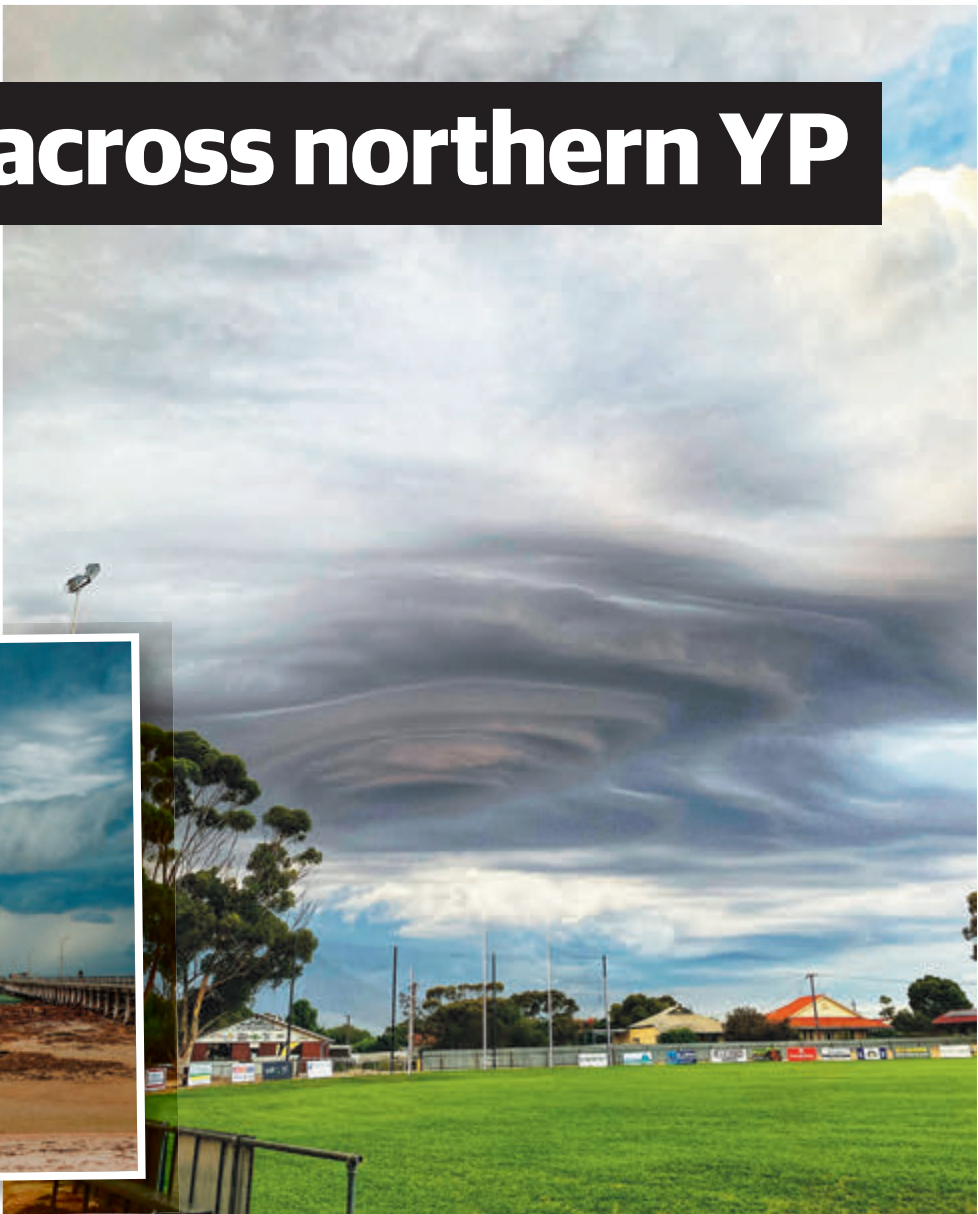

The Kadina weather station recorded 2mm of rainfall from the storm as well as wind gusts of 72km/h.

These storms developed in association with high levels of surface moisture and heat as well as a trough of low pressure that extended across South Australia from a low-pressure centre over the Kimberley, in northern Western Australia.

Port Augusta experienced significant rainfall, recording 51.6mm in one hour between 8pm and 9pm.

OVER THE SEA... Randy Reid managed to capture the slow-moving cloud cover over Moonta Bay.

SWIRLING... The clouds created a swirling pattern above the Maitland oval yesterday (Monday, January 31).

Tourism grants help businesses in tough times

Jess Liddy
JOURNALIST

YONDAH Beach House, Foul Bay, and Pink Lake Tiny House, Lochiel, have received funding for their accommodation facilities through the 2021 Tourism Industry Development Fund.

Pink Lake Tiny House received $91,489 to establish two tiny houses, two bell tents and shared guest facilities.

Yondah Beach House was granted $48,383 for upgrades, the creation of new walking trails and installation of picnic seating and a bird hide.

Yondah Beach House owners Michele Bain and Nick Cureton said the grant provided valuable financial support.

“We are grateful for the funding which provides 30 per cent of the cost of upgrading and enriching the on-site visitor experience at Yondah Beach House and Seafire Beach House,” they said.

“It means we can start work immediately on an upgrade of our guest amenities to meet the higher standard of quality now expected by local, interstate and international visitors.

“The improvements will entice high-value visitors to stay in the region longer, spend more locally, and contribute an economic boost to our own business and to the local visitor economy.

“Most importantly, this project is to be completed almost entirely by local contractors which will provide valuable financial support to several local businesses and families in these difficult Covid times.”

Michele and Nick said it was vital to offer more high-end and unique accommodation options on YP.

“We tourism operators also need to collaborate effectively to offer compelling and immersive nature-based and cultural experiences that showcase our beautiful region to visitors and ultimately build the Yorke Peninsula brand,” they said.

YP Tourism manager Brooke Liebelt said the Tourism Industry Development Fund has allowed tourism businesses to keep developing visitor experiences and upgrading facilities to meet consumer expectations.

“Experiential accommodation can be a motivator for travel to a specific region and Yorke Peninsula is fortunate to have a growing number of brilliant accommodation options to choose from,” Mrs Liebelt said.

Support the local tourism industry

Pink Lake Tiny House owners Michael and Christina Seeliger have found it tough to run a tourism business in the midst of Covid-19.

“The funding has been very welcome and has enabled us to expand the accommodation project much more quickly,” they said.

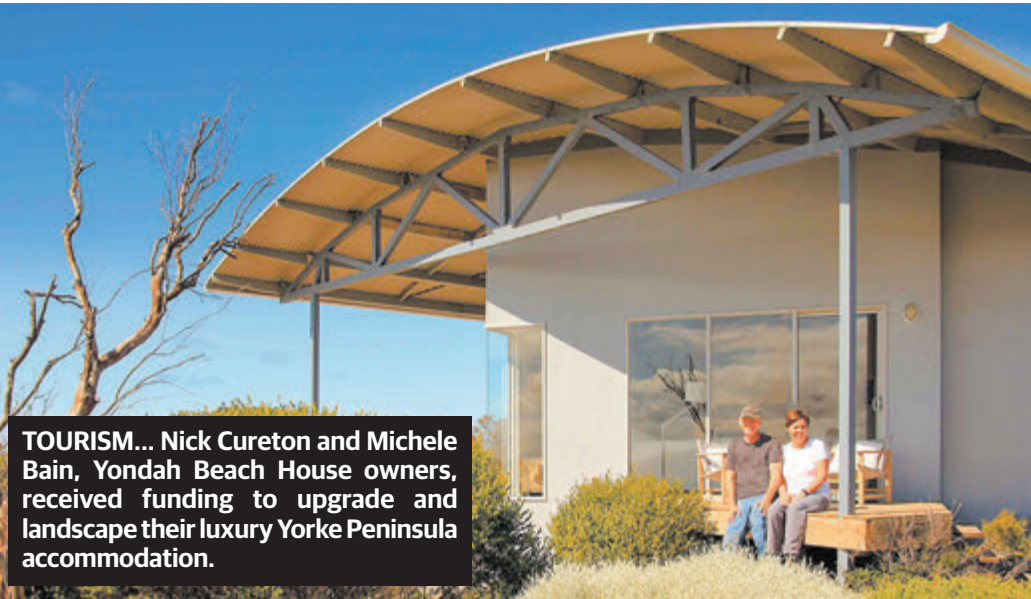

“The facility, when completed, will include three tiny houses (already on-site and operational), two five-metre bell tents and associated facilities suitable to support people staying at the site such as a barbecue area and a shower and toilet facility.

“Prior to the development of this project there was no accommodation facility in Lochiel which meant people visiting the pink lake were only there for a few hours during the day, which is of limited benefit to the local economy.

“Since the establishment of the Pink Lake Tiny House a lot of work has been done to raise the profile of Lochiel and Lake Bumbunga which has enhanced the town and local area.”

EXPLORE... Pink Lake Tiny House, Lochiel, has continued to expand with owners Michael and Christina Seeliger encouraging people to support South Australian owned tourism businesses in these challenging times.

TOURISM... Nick Cureton and Michele Bain, Yondah Beach House owners, received funding to upgrade and landscape their luxury Yorke Peninsula accommodation.

Bute Soldiers' Memorial Hall 100 years

This year Bute will celebrate the Bute Soldier's Memorial Hall's 100 year anniversary.

Like many other townships on Yorke Peninsula at the end of World War I, the residents of Bute were keen to erect a memorial to those of their district who had served in the War.

A Roll of Honour was unveiled in Bute by Mr HG Tossell, the local Member of Parliament, on Australia Day 1916, with the aim of encouraging enlistments. Three years later, on receipt of a Government grant of 240 pounds, the District Council of Ninnes decided to beautify the recreation grounds and build a Soldiers' monument. Not long after this, work on a memorial hall began.

The Hall, built as a memorial to those from Bute who had served in World War I, remains as a substantial reminder of the impact that this War had on the local community and the country at large.

Volunteers have organised a weekend of activities over 11-13 March 2022 to celebrate the Hall's 100 year anniversary including:

- History displays at the RSL Clubrooms, Bute History Room and the Gunner Bill's Heritage Centre – open all weekend
- Gardening workshops hosted by Sophie Thomson, ABC Gardening Australia presenter – Saturday 12 March, bookings through Eventbrite essential
- Dressing of the Graves ceremony at the Bute Cemetery – Sunday 13 March 10:30 am
- Resin workshop hosted by Megan Gilchrist from Painting Imperfect – Sunday 13 March 2:00 pm, bookings essential

MAITLAND

MAITLAND... Maitland and District Progress Association Australia Day Award winners, Dr Mariusz Kocinski, Leanne Edwards, Sue Gerschwitz, Rachel Davies, Beryl Neumann, Michelle Nelligan, Anneke Meaney and Dr Kwabena Duah. The progress association held a private ceremony this year, and recognised Beryl Neumann as Citizen of the Year for her contribution to recording and collating the district's history. Medical HQ Maitland received the association's Community Award for keeping the community safe during the Covid-19 pandemic. "The logistical and healthcare challenges presented by the pandemic have required this team to take their dedication and service to a new level," a progress spokesperson said. "They have pulled together and often put themselves in the firing line of disgruntled patients, and Covid-19, to help keep our community safe and to provide medical services. They were especially nominated for the provision of the innovative and highly effective drive-through flu vax clinics, which shows that necessity is the mother of invention."

SUPPLY issues caused by Covid-19 are continuing to hit the automotive industry.

But, according to Peninsula Toyota's Richard Bussenschutt patience is key.

"There's a global shortage of parts, not only for Toyotas but for all makes, that affects building a new car because of issues with labour," Mr Bussenschutt said.

"Covid-19 has affected the workers so there are not enough staff to be able to supply the requisite parts to complete the cars.

"It wasn't that long ago that we were telling people it would take between four and eight months for their new car to arrive, now we're looking at six to 12 and I don't see it getting better in the next six months."

Mr Bussenschutt said there is a limited stock of new vehicles around but encouraged people to start ordering in advance.

"Our demo vehicles are not sold until we can get replacements for them so people need to keep these things in mind when car shopping," he said.

"This is an Australia-wide problem, we just ask that people have patience and not be disheartened.

"If people are thinking about buying a car in the next six months, I really suggest they put their names down now because it is only going to get worse after that time."

While the delays can seem unhelpful, Mr Bussenschutt said there are some unexpected upsides as well.

"A car being delayed by a year can actually be beneficial as it means you have an extra year to save money, which gives you a bigger deposit," he said.

"The prices of trade-ins and used cars have also gone up immensely in the past two years, so if you think you need to move now to make sure you get a good price, they're also only going to increase.

"Used cars are going to be worth more in 12 months.

"People just need to be patient and forward thinking."

ON THE WAY... Toyota has begun the first customer deliveries of its all-new LandCruiser 300 Series (Sahara ZX shown) as customers are being asked to order early to avoid disappointment.

JLF Trek coming to YP

Sonny Coombs
JOURNALIST

YORKE Peninsula is set to host this year's Jodi Lee Foundation South Australian Trek.

The annual JLF Trek SA raises much-needed funds and awareness for the prevention and early detection of bowel cancer.

The trek is an endurance event designed to challenge participants physically and mentally and will be held on parts of the Walk the Yorke trail on Friday and Saturday, May 13-14.

Bowel cancer is the second most common cause of cancer-related death in Australia, and now the leading cancer killer in 25 to 34 year olds.

However, if detected early, up to 99 per cent of bowel cancers can be successfully treated, or even prevented.

Jodi Lee Foundation founder and chair Nick Lee OAM is urging people to participate in The JLF Trek SA to raise funds and help eliminate bowel cancer.

"This is the first year The JLF Trek is taking us to the beautiful Yorke Peninsula," Mr Lee said.

"We look forward to welcoming the new local participants along with previous participants joining us again.

"The JLF Trek is an integral part of the Jodi Lee Foundation which helps us raise vital funds and awareness, but also challenging trekkers to be active, which we know is one of the key steps to preventing bowel cancer."

Participants have the option to hike either 72 kilometres over two days, or 33.5km or 26km over one day and will enjoy a well-earned celebration at a finish line party.

Jodi Lee Foundation community engagement manager Samantha Herbut said the trek will be a fun weekend with a sense of community.

"Walking with more than 250 people is such a humbling experience, knowing that you're all walking for a collective cause and helping to save lives," she said.

"Each year The JLF Trek SA likes to explore a different South Australian region, Yorke Peninsula is a beautiful part of South Australia and now with the Walk the Yorke trail, it's the perfect time to explore what this area has to offer."

Yorke Peninsula Council is supporting the event through $2000 of sponsorship and in-kind support.

"We are extremely excited for Yorke Peninsula to host this year's JLF Trek," CEO Andrew Cameron said.

"This event is expected to attract about 300 participants to the beautiful Yorke Peninsula coast, whilst raising much-needed money and awareness for the fight against bowel cancer.

"Council is proud to support the Jodi Lee Foundation with this year's trek, including through financial sponsorship and in-kind assistance."

For full event details and to register go to jodilee.foundation.org.au.

Registrations close April 30 unless sold out before.

JLF TREK... Yorke Peninsula Council manager of economic development and business sustainability Nick Perry and Jodi Lee Foundation community engagement manager Samantha Herbut are excited for this year's Jodi Lee Foundation Trek SA to be held on the Walk the Yorke trail.

Glenn receives OAM

Sonny Coombs
JOURNALIST

GLENN Herbert, of North Beach, has been recognised in this year's Australia Day honours.

He has received the Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for his service to the community, particularly at Bute.

Mr Herbert was a charter member of the Bute and District Lions Club when it began in 1975, and has held most office, including president four times.

He has been an active Lions member at local, district, Australian and international levels and was inducted into the Australian Lions Foundation Hall of Fame in 2019.

Glenn has held many positions at District Cabinet including zone chairman, regional chairman, district governor, Youth of the Year chairman and District Australian Lions Foundation chairman.

He was also the District Convention chairperson for two conventions and on two other convention committees, as well as two Multiple District Convention committees.

Glenn's ALF involvement has spanned some 25 years, including 13 years as C1

District Disaster chairman and 12 years as C1 District trustee/director.

Glenn retired from the board in 2017, was appointed as advisor to the chairman and then made a Lifetime Ambassador to the foundation.

"It was a surprise when I found out (about the OAM), you don't expect these things to come along," Glenn said.

"(I got involved with Lions) because I had seen the services they had provided in other communities and how much good they had done.

"It's a great social gathering that does a lot of good for the community."

Glenn said a highlight was his time spent on the Australian Lions Foundation board.

"During that time, as chairman, I guided the foundation through a complete overhaul to meet with all the government regulations including re-writing the constitution and changing our systems," he said.

"We brought in the compassion grant fund and during that time we were doing $2.5 million in aid and projects around Australia each year.

"During that time the foundation really increased its presence around Australia ... one of the outstanding moments was when Dick Smith presented a cheque for $1m towards the compassionate grants fund."

Glenn's community spirit has extended beyond Lions and he has volunteered with various sporting and community clubs.

"I have also said 'the community you live in is only as good as you make it' and all people who volunteer recognise that," he said.

"We are very fortunate the community we live in is really good and all the small towns have great communities.

"I would encourage everyone to volunteer and get behind their community clubs whether it be sporting or service."

TAKE THE SHOT... SYP Photography Club inaugural members Liz Daniels, Adam Meyer and Sue Hancock will hold their first meeting tonight, Tuesday, February 1.

Photography club in the frame

Nigel Parsons
JOURNALIST

THE Southern Yorke Peninsula Photography Club will hold its first official meeting tonight (Tuesday, February 1).

Founding members Liz Daniels, Adam Meyer and Sue Hancock began the club unofficially in 2021 and have been working to become an affiliated organisation.

"We were having a chat after the YP Arts Exhibitions at Easter and we decided to pull some likeminded people together and form a club," Ms Daniels said.

"So, the three of us had a couple of meetings and we utilised the guidance of the Copper Coast Photography Club as to how we become an affiliated member of the South Australian Photography Federation.

"We organised a constitution and set up a Facebook page to source interest and we already have plenty of people expressing real interest."

The three are all passionate about their craft with Ms Hancock having a love for astro photography, getting out in the dark of night doing long exposures of the night sky.

Ms Daniels loves fine arts and portraiture including black and whites and Mr Meyer has produced some stunning aerial landscapes using his drone.

The trio have workshops planned for many of the club's monthly get-togethers and hope to lure expert guest speakers to pass on their knowledge and experiences.

"I think one of the fabulous things about the group is we will have a brief each month which could be macro images for example," Ms Daniels said.

"Members can then submit three pieces of work which are then are critiqued by master photographers from the SAPF with a mark out of 10.

"At the following meeting they will find out whether they've won a gold, silver or bronze for the work which is a really great platform for members to develop their photography skills."

The club already has an exhibition for members organised through the Barossa Art Festival in April.

"It's an ambition of ours to have exhibitions as a club over the next year or two in local environments," Mr Meyer said.

The club will meet at 7.30pm at the Yorketown Progress Association Hall on the first Tuesday of each month.

For more information, visit the club's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/groups/southern-yorkepeninsulaphotographyclub

Fat Farmers starting Kadina group

FAT Farmers is holding an information evening for potential members in Kadina next Monday, February 7.

Fat Farmers Rural Health Initiative aims to encourage farming families and other rural community members to support each other while getting active.

The initiative started in Maitland in 2010 and has expanded to 11 other areas across the state.

"Our information night will be a chance to learn more, ask any questions you might have and give feedback on your preferred day/time for the fitness group," Fat Farmers executive officer Tessa Colliver said.

"Staying active is vital not only for physical and mental health and wellbeing, it can also assist in warding off health issues that can hold you up in running the farm or keeping up with the kids.

"The group started training at the local gym and participating in the annual City-Bay Fun Run.

"Fat Farmers is holding its first fitness challenge this month. We encourage people to get involved."

Booking are essential and can be done by emailing info@fatfarmers.com or text/calling 0419 824 122.

What's on at Gallery 1871

JESSICA Hewett Curating is organising several events to be held at Gallery 1871, Port Broughton, during February to April.

Port Lincoln artist Ella Boylan's SASCAPES exhibition, showcasing stunning Yorke Peninsula and Eyre Peninsula landscapes and coastlines, will be staged Friday and Saturday, February 25-26.

Ella will also host four of her successful wine and paint workshops, focusing on acrylic-on-canvas technique, during the exhibition.

The 2.5 hour workshops cost $100 each and include all materials, nibbles and drinks.

Moonta-raised artist Georgia Ivens is passionate about YP and her exhibition Home — celebrating all the places along YP that resonate with her, paying special tribute to farming life and community — is scheduled for March 4-18.

The works are inspired by special photographers of the region and will also include portraiture.

Georgia was awarded the biennial Kernewek Lowender Acquisitive Art Prize in 2021 and has displayed in numerous galleries throughout Adelaide.

The Seafood on Spencer Art Prize is programmed for April 1-4, coinciding with the seafood festival to be held at the Port Broughton foreshore on April 2.

Artists are invited to enter their works of any medium (paint, sketch, photography, sculpture, mosaic, et cetera) and any size; subject matter must be based on fishing or seafood.

"Although all submissions are welcome, not all will be accepted with only panel-selected works displayed for prize contention," Jessica said.

For more information or to book a workshop, email jessicahewettcurating@outlook.com.

Gallery 1871 is next to the community hall at 36 McKay Street, Port Broughton.

These include the Royal Flying Doctor Service Southern Yorke Peninsula Support Group, two quilts for raffle prizes; Uniting Country SA, Port Pirie, 46 quilts; Women's Safety Services SA, Elizabeth, 20 quilts; and The Queen Elizabeth Hospital renal dialysis unit, Woodville South, 27 quilts.

Contact the group via ghquilters@gmail.com to nominate a group to receive quilts.

The Minlaton-based quilters currently have a selection of quilts on display at a free mini exhibition in the Harvest Corner reading/meeting room, Minlaton.

Many of the quilts have been assembled using wadding and/or backing purchased with a Yorke Peninsula Council community grant.

"Golden Harvest Quilters appreciate the support received from the council and Harvest Corner," GHQ vice-president Michelle Hawthorne said.

"We usually meet on the second Wednesday of each month at the Minlaton CWA rooms but, unfortunately, meetings are currently suspended after advice from the SA Quilters Guild."

The quilts will be on display at Harvest Corner until mid-February.

balancing BODY, MIND & SO

Time for a self-focus

IT has been another unprecedented year and, at times, our health and wellbeing goals feel further out of reach than ever before.

Unrealistic social media images and societal obligations can make us feel like this time of the year is solely for reinvention.

But there is nothing wrong with who you currently are.

As we all return to our work and school routines, it's important to take time for yourself and ensure your body, mind and soul are nourished.

This guide provides a large range of locals ready to help you achieve whatever you set out to achieve.

You could start with healthy and fresh food from Kadina Fruit Market, or maybe you're looking for a new way to move your body? If so, check out Breathe to Believe, Karen Lee Dance Academy, SYP Fitness Minlaton or Copper Coast Sport and Leisure Centre, Kadina.

Sometimes, all you need to feel better is some relaxing and rejuvenating pampering, as is offered by Serenity Beauty by Ashlee — which also offers massage.

There really is something for everyone and every goal.

Minding the minds of our local youth

AN initiative to help teenagers understand the importance of physical and mental health is moving into Kadina.

The Move for Mind program will be held across eight weeks and teach strategies and skills to help reduce anxiety and stress, through healthy lifestyle decisions.

The program, aimed at teenagers aged 13 to 19, will begin at the Copper Coast Sport and Leisure Centre, Kadina, in February.

Centre manager Giles Ellis said Belgravia Leisure acquired funding from the state government's Office for Recreation, Sport and Racing to launch the initiative.

"We are really keen to jump on board for such a great program," Mr Ellis said.

"It is an eight-week program which will cover different areas of health — including physical and mental.

"It is hard to be a teenager these days in the midst of a pandemic, as well as the pressures of social media, so to have a program locally to not only improve their general health but support healthy living from a young age is just fantastic."

Copper Coast Council mayor Roslyn Talbot said council was happy to support Belgravia Leisure with the program.

"It's good to see schools supporting the program as well," Mrs Talbot said.

"We hope Move for Mind will get a good uptake and, if it is successful, source more funding in the future for more programs."

The hour-long sessions — which offer weekly rewards, guest speakers and fitness programs — will be every Tuesday held at 3.30pm from February 22 to April 12.

Wellbeing tips

THERE'S so much we can do to keep our bodies and minds healthy.

"A healthy mind will help you find your way through life, from birth through childhood, through teenage years, adulthood and into older age," an SA Health spokesperson said.

"Exercising makes you feel good and can help your mental health; it will also help you sleep better, and get the rest you need.

"Try not to dwell on past mistakes or negative things that have happened to you.

"We all make mistakes and stewing on things or worrying to excess will not change anything.

"Learn from the experience and be willing to move on.

"Be with people you enjoy being with and who make you happy and keep communicating and interacting with your friends and family.

"Tell those you trust how you are feeling if you're going through tough times because talking to others and seeking help early can be very helpful in reducing depression, anxiety and distress."

Learning a new sport, language, instrument or brain training can also improve wellbeing.

"Wellbeing can mean different things to different people but some common features include having a sense of purpose, feeling good and functioning well, having control in your life and the options to change things if necessary, as well as achieving goals you set for yourself," the spokesperson said.

Member profiled at Moonta Probus Club

PROBUS Club of Moonta and Districts' first meeting for 2022 was held at Moonta Golf Club on Monday, January 10.

President Doug Warming-ton welcomed 26 members and a minute's silence was held for much-loved member Jo Coleman, who died in November.

Lucky number winners were Gwen Elsworthy, Moranne Coombs and Dulcie Barker, and members were reminded of various club activities restarting in February.

Doug then introduced club member Richard Herbert to speak about his life.

A Warradale Park boy, Richard spent his school years at Oaklands Primary and Brighton High before joining the state government Department of Social Welfare in 1968.

Trained as a financial assistance officer, he was later involved in negotiating welfare for single parents.

He completed an associate diploma in business management, then a BA and social work degree.

Stints followed with Marion council, home and community care on Yorke Peninsula, and at Tindall RAAF base in Katherine Richard moved Berri Health Services in 1999 (where he met future wife Kate), and finally Minlaton and Wallaroo to work in aged care assessment.

He helped coordinate a men's group at The Station, Wallaroo, and with the Vietnam Veterans Counselling Service.

THANK YOU RICHARD... Guest speaker, Moonta and Districts Probus Club member Richard Herbert accepts thanks from Jan French and Doug Warmington.

About then he joined the NYP Rotary Club, serving as president in 2010-11.

Richard and Kate retired to the Copper Coast Lifestyle Village in 2010, enjoying their blended family, caravanning and overseas travels.

Jan French thanked Richard for his interesting talk, commenting how many find purpose in life and study through their employment and in community.

Chris Wardle from NYP Real Estate will speak at the club's next meeting on Monday, February 7.

Retirees interested in Probus can speak to club secretary Helen Colliver, phone 0419 839 869.

Watching the fish pond

I WAS in my home office at my computer.

My window overlooks a fernery and garden fish pond and I can watch our goldfish swimming happily between reeds and water lilies.

Looking up from my work, I saw a rather large magpie hopping towards the edge of the pond.

Immediately I thought the worst.

That magpie must have designs on one of the baby fish and within moments he'll have a newborn goldie for lunch!

I rose to my feet, thinking I'll bang on the window and scare the magpie off. But too late! The bird had already reached the edge of the pond.

Then I relaxed.

All the magpie wanted was a drink of water.

Having had that quick drink, it flew off. No harm done.

I was right to be concerned but it made me think about how easy it is to jump to conclusions.

Some people jump to false conclusions when they see someone poorly dressed or wearing outlandish clothes.

Some jump to false conclusions about someone who's obviously a different race and colour to them.

Some jump to false conclusions about someone who's just plain different.

It could be easy to judge them, maybe even to conclude they could be up to mischief.

In our world we're right to be concerned and careful, but we shouldn't jump the gun and condemn people just because they aren't quite the same as us.

Jesus once said, "Do not judge others so God will not judge you." (Matthew 7:1).

Good advice then — and today.

HOME... Osprey have found a new lease on life at Price, thanks to an artificial platform that was installed in July last year.

New life for local osprey

Patrick Goldsmith
REPORT BY

OSPREY at Price have flourished thanks to a new artificial platform.
The platform was installed just before breeding season in July and has reaped rewards as adult birds produced two offspring.
A satellite tracker was fitted to one of the adult birds in December, providing more opportunities to gain understanding.

Field ornithologist Ian Falkenberg said the newly introduced technology allowed authorities to better track the spread of the birds.
“The problem was, although we knew some information, it was hard sometimes to figure out what they got up to,” he said.
“But in saying that, they’re doing what we expect them to do, going up and down the coast a lot but they do spend time inland too.

“We know more about them than previously.”
Mr Falkenberg said the platforms were necessary due to loss of habitat which is the biggest threat to osprey.
“They’re continuously losing suitable habitat and that’s thanks to human development or that of housing and tourism,” he said.
“But they also struggle in extreme heat events or with lurking foxes, Pacific gulls or crows, which will swoop in and take their eggs.”

As a result of development, 50 per cent of osprey in Europe nest on artificial platforms.
Mr Falkenberg said it was pleasing to see it become a project within the community too.
“I know the Ardrossan Community Men’s Shed has been putting in a lot of work which is pleasing because you like to see people rally together for something like this.”

Grants boost for Maitland groups

COUNTRY Home Services Doing Good 4 SA Community Grants Program's novelty cheques were back in action during December.

Maitland Tidy Towns Group and Men's Shed received a combined $4500 towards the purchase of a trailer and equipment to help both groups with their community work.

"We launched the grants program in August as a way of supporting community groups that make a difference in the lives of older people," CHS manager mission and strategy Catherine Balfour-Ogilvy said.

"In all cases, people who gain from these grants will not only be those participating in the group's activities — the community as a whole will benefit and that is why we are thrilled to provide funds to help their operations."

The program operates all year round and groups that support seniors' wellbeing in their community can apply for up to $2500 of funding.

In its first six months of operation, the program has awarded $20,000 to Yorke Peninsula, Clare Valley and Burra groups.

For information, contact Catherine on 0407 392 630.

Animal artwork in Moonta park

A KANGAROO, emu and koala all arrived in McCauley Park, Moonta, recently.

The steel animals were created by Plasma-Art in Lewiston and installed by business owners Dave and Jodie Wynes in December.

Moonta and District Progress Association Town Beautification Group members were happy to help out.

"The animals are manufactured of Carter Steel and will age well," group spokesperson Josie Welk said.

"Security cameras were also installed at the same time and council workers were on board for the installation — they supplied the cement work and we thank them for their efforts."

"We hope visitors and locals will visit the animals — it's a great view for selfies with the children."

The group thanked the Wyneses for donating the cost of installation and the Moonta Hotel Social Club for their donation towards the animals.

DONATION... Wallaroo Holiday Park manager Michael Byrne, Wallaroo Sailing Club commodore Peter Elverd and WSC treasurer Jan Halse hand over a donation to the Yorke Peninsula Prostate Cancer Support Group's Robert Kidd and Ron Duncan.

Donation to YP Prostate Cancer Support Group

WALLAROO Sailing Club donated more than $1000 to the Yorke Peninsula Prostate Cancer Support Group.

The total of $1068.30 was raised through a raffle and donations with the prize of three nights' accommodation donated by the Wallaroo Holiday Park.

The inspiration for the fundraiser came from a member of the Copper Coast Kayak Group who recently had prostate cancer treatment and said he found kayaking an enjoyable, gentle, exercise, and felt better for it.

The WSC committee welcomed the idea and supported the worthy cause.

"It's great to see the money raised go to the YP Prostate Cancer Support Group to assist their good work for the community," the WSC committee said.

YP Prostate Cancer Support Group leader Robert Kidd said it was a wonderful donation that was out of the blue.

"The nearest support group to Wallaroo is ours in Minlaton," Mr Kidd said.

"Any money we raise or donations we receive go to the Prostate Cancer Foundation of Australia for research and awareness projects."

Mr Kidd said a prostate care nurse had recently been appointed at Wallaroo Hospital.

"With the expansion of the Specialist Nursing Service together with the establishment of the new Telenurse Service, the PCAF plans to launch Australia's first prostate cancer counselling service this year," he said.

"The YPPCSG meets one evening every second month from February in the Community Health building in Minlaton."

Eagles grand final bound

GRAND FINAL BOUND... Curramulka's Murphy Short was a pivotal player in West Torrens' semifinal win against Sturt.

Peter Argent
REPORT BY

West Torrens District Cricket Club, on the back of a brilliant team bowling display, has won its way through to the SACA men's One Day Cup grand final.

Curramulka's Murphy Short was a key performer, bowling 10 pivotal overs, in the semifinal win against Sturt on Sunday, January 30.

After the Blues got off to an early flyer, Short produced a critical eight-over spell, which included the wicket of Jacob Dick for just 25 runs.

Short bowled his full quota of 10 overs and finished with 1/30.

"All year he (Murphy) has stepped up to the next level," West Torrens coach Mark Harrity said.

"He has garnered the nickname 'Mister Reliable' delivering for us whether it's with the bat, the ball or in the field.

"He has become an important piece of the puzzle at first grade level for us this year.

"There is an argument he deserved better figures than he received in this semifinal match."

Fellow lower Yorke Peninsula cricket player, teenager James Reuther, chimed in with three overs and figures of 0/10, as the Blues were kept to a middling total of 8/191.

Number three bat Thomas Kelly produced his second half-century in successive days for Sturt, making a patient 59 by his usually aggressive standards.

He dispatched a single six and a boundary in more-than two-hour stay at the crease.

West Torrens was in early trouble at 3/77 but form batsman and skipper Daniel Drew made the most of his opportunities, reaching 76 after being dropped before scoring.

West Torrens scored a six-wicket win, with 11.2 overs remaining and will now take on Glenelg in the final at Karen Rolton Oval on Sunday, February 13.

The Eagles have won the one-day title five times since the competition started in the mid-1960s, with their most recent title coming in 2016-17.

Battles for top fours heating up

Joan Hill
REPORT BY

Saturday competition

DIVISION I

The makeup of the Saturday (open) competition's division I top four is getting interesting. Closest game last week was Maitland versus Bute, the visitors going home winners by four shots. Both sides had two teams up and both had a winning team by eight shots; Maitland is still winless but it has been close many times. Wallaroo Blue, hosting Arthurton, had one team up and a draw. However, Arthurton had two teams up, including Martyn Moloney, his daughter Grace, Travis Skipworth and Peter Bagshaw, whose 32-18 helped the visitors to overall victory. Ardrossan played at Moonta where it took the game right up to the top side, losing by 11 shots; both sides had two teams up. Kadina had a big win against Paskeville. Wallaroo White had all teams up at Port Broughton, and would have been happy with that win away from home. Moonta is sitting on 166 points at the top of the ladder, Wallaroo White and Kadina are both on 162; with four minor round games left to play, what an interesting run home to the finals it will be. These four games will be of great importance to those three clubs. Fourth spot is also up for grabs between Arthurton and Bute.

DIVISION II

With three sides having byes in div II, four games were played. The closest was at Bute, which played Wallaroo Blue; Bute had two teams up and another with a draw. Moonta Red and Blue hold first and second on the ladder respectively; both played away from home and had wins. Third-placed Kadina played at home and had a 29-shot win against Ardrossan. DIVISION III The top four sides — Moonta Red, Blue and White, and Wallaroo White — all had wins, Moonta White receiving a forfeit from Ardrossan Blue. Wallaroo White defeated Wallaroo Blue in a local derby. ### This Saturday

DIVISION I

Game of the week should be at Arthurton, which is hosting Moonta. Moonta needs to win if it is to hang onto top spot; Arthurton is a good side with good players but Moonta will want this badly. Desperately wanting top spot, Wallaroo White plays at home against Maitland, which is yet to have a win. With Wallaroo bound to throw everything at this game in an attempt to boost its percentage, I feel sorry for Maitland.

Paskeville will be at home to Port Broughton and will have to improve if it wants to win this one. Ardrossan took the game right up to Moonta; can it do the same against Kadina? Ardrossan is at home but I can't see that worrying Kadina. Bute plays well at home and can still make the four; it should defeat Wallaroo Blue. DIVISION II Moonta Red should win at home against Kadina, and Bute should win at Ardrossan. With both aiming at fourth spot, game of the round will be Wallaroo Mines versus Arthurton. Arthurton will need to win as it has a bye the following week. Paskeville will visit Moonta to play Moonta Blue, Moonta won't want to lose this one. Port Broughton travels to close neighbour Alford. This could be a close game, I wonder if Alford can win...

DIVISION III

At home, Moonta Blue should defeat Wallaroo White. Moonta White travels to Kadina and will want to win, and Moonta Red should have a win against Wallaroo Blue at Wallaroo.

Thursday competition

DIVISION I GREEN

Port Broughton had an eight-shot win against Kadina/Mines and Bute had a 26-shot win against Ardrossan on January 27. Moonta Red had a good win at Maitland and still has one game (round 10) to complete; it needs to keep up its good form if it wants to get back on top. Wallaroo, playing at Moonta against Moonta Blue, appeared to have little trouble with all teams up. Port Broughton, hosting Kadina/Mines, had two teams up with the best win coming from Valerie Baker's team 23-15. DIVISION I GOLD Closest game was at Moonta against Arthurton, where the visitors won by two shots. With one team up and another drawing, Arthurton had luck on its side. In another good game, Alford had a 22-shot win at home against Ardrossan. Paskeville played at home and defeated Wallaroo. Results 27-1-22 DIVISION I GREEN Bute 86 (14) (E Sluggett 19, J Hewett 27, R Taylor 30, S Millard 10) d

This week

DIVISION I GREEN

Port Broughton is trying to make the four and Ardrossan is trying to stop in the four. With only three rounds left, this Thursday's game is a must-win for Ardrossan, which hosts Kadina/Mines in what will likely be the closest game of the week. Both Ardrossan and Kadina/Mines sides lost last week and will be looking for wins. Ardrossan is minus skipper Penny McCarthy and I wonder if the side can defeat Kadina/Mines. Wallaroo is at home against Maitland, the home side should be too good for the visitors. Moonta Red is at home and should be too strong for Port Broughton. After a win last week and playing at home, Bute can defeat Moonta Blue. DIVISION I GOLD Game of the round should be at Wallaroo against Arthurton. On its home green, Wallaroo should give top side Arthurton a run for its money but I can't see Arthurton losing this one. Kadina/Mines travels to Paskeville, which would dearly love a win, but can it defeat Kadina/Mines, which must be trying desperately to make the four? Moonta travels to Ardrossan and should win.

Ardrossan Saturday: Results 29-1-22 — Division I lost narrowly 88-99 to Moonta Red. Best rink A Rowntree, Brenton Rowntree, J Simmons and F Rowntree (sk) grabbed the lead early and, after an intense battle, came home strongly for a 29-20 victory. L Rich's team ground down its opponent in a close game, sealing the 23-20 success in the final two ends. After a seesawing encounter, B Rowntree's rink entered the final ends equal, but then couldn't take a trick, losing 21-28. D Adcock's team was devastated early, but even outscoring its opponent in the second half could not avoid a 15-31 defeat. Div II lost 80-109 to Kadina. Best rink T Spiteri, D Lambert, P Robinson and D Johnson (sk) had a flying start and defended its lead to win 28-18. F Stennett's team engaged in a close battle until losing the final two ends to fall short 17-20. N Marsh's rink was unable to restrict its opponent in a 16-30 defeat. P Goodie's team was overwhelmed in the early ends but, although fighting back valiantly, lost 19-39. Div III White lost to Moonta Blue 47-66. Best rink C Werner, T Burnman, G Moulds and D Barton (sk) had an excellent start, building up a good lead and resisted a strong fightback for a 18-13 win. C Voysey's team threatened to overpower its opponent before falling away to lose 14-21. I Werner's rink gave up a considerable lead early, after which it matched its opponent in its 15-32 defeat. LBB

Arthurton Thursday: Results 27-1-22 — Arthurton travelled to Moonta and came away with a close win. Arthurton struggled on several rinks in hot and humid weather. As we started to read the greens, the games turned our way. Ali Adams's team of Sheryl Davey, Joy Kitto and Jan Westley had the only win for Arthurton 22-12. Well done. Bev Mullins's team came back to draw 21-21. Amanda Gersch's team had a close loss 18-22. Everyone waited for the final match with Jill Bagshaw's team of Val McLean, Jude Buttfeld and Deb Davey winning their last two ends to secure a close overall win, Arthurton 77 d Moonta 75. "Wildoats2"

Kadina/Mines Thursday: The Green side lost by eight shots to Port Broughton away with two winning teams. The humidity made it uncomfortable and draining. Best: Jan Spry, Shylie Koch, Raylene Peter, Betty Champion/Kath Teddy 18-16. Others: Wendy Venning, Chris Pearce, Kaye Cross, Cynthia Pearce 16-15; Anne Rule 17-20; Coralie Fiskien 15-23. Thank you Bronwyn for your help during the game. Before heading home we enjoyed a coffee and lunch on the foreshore. The Gold side had a bye. NS

Moonta Thursday: After a lot of uncertainty with players out due to Covid, we managed to field three sides. In humid weather, Red travelled to Maitland and won 92-57 with all teams up. Joyce Andrew 23-14, Sharon Cavanagh 16-14, Marg Chandler 25-15; Claire Eichenberger 28-14, with a 14-shot win, was best team. Thank you to Maitland for lending us a player when one of ours became ill. Blue, playing at home against Wallaroo, lost 44-108. Sheryl Rost 7-35, Judy Gibb 9-29, Ann Waters 13-28; Maxine Reynold's team, 15-16, was best. White played at home against Arthurton. It was a close-fought game losing by two shots, 75-77, gaining 11 points. Maureen Johnson 22-18, Julie Downs 12-22, Beryl Williams 20-16, and Rosemary Smith drew 21-21. Best Robert Rasmus, Beryl Williams, Roger Dall, Bob Jenkins, 17 up. Div III White did not get a game for the second week in a row, receiving a forfeit from Ardrossan Blue so getting the points. "Swapping the umbrella for sunscreen"

Paskeville: The women's side won 96-45 last Thursday, January 27. Thank you to John Olding, Neil Harrop, Geoff Hill and Rob Rouse for helping us out. We really couldn't manage without these fill-ins. We had three teams up. We are in second spot on the ladder but I think that top spot is a bit elusive at this stage. We play at home this week so let's hope for a win. Saturday second division had a bye. This week we go to Moonta to play the Blue side. First division travelled into Kadina with the scores not all that good. Div I plays at home this week so let's hope for a win. "One-eyed Maggie"

Wallaroo Thursday: Hot, muggy weather prevailed for pennant games on January 27. Surprisingly, the greens ran well after heavy weekend rains. Wallaroo Gold travelled to Paskeville and, with one team up, lost 45-96 Well done to Mim Kenchington and her two new players who continued after their skipper had to retire. Wallaroo Green was hosted by Moonta Blue and had a convincing win, 108-43. Best team was D Milner, T Schultz, H Kneviatt and J Curtain. Best wishes to injured skipper Karen Frick for a speedy recovery. DP

As always, thank you to those members, persons who filled in for our sides. Marilyn Brandt made it into the Adelaide rounds of the state singles knockouts, hope you went well and sorry for not including this in last week's report. "Papa Bravo"

Warooka: I incorrectly named the sponsors of the club's new bowling shirts in the report published 18-1-22; they are Richard and Cheryl "Chi Chi" Edwards of Stepneys Restoration Centre, Complete Building Restoration, and Elephant Brick Co., Thebarton. We thank them so much. When we next played competitive bowls, we were all in our new shirts, which look quite smart. Sunday afternoon, January 23, we were privileged to have Les Carter at our club to conduct an informal coaching clinic, which was encouraging to all members in attendance. We all came away feeling uplifted and keen to get back on the green practising. The kitchen volunteers provided a yummy meal between activities.

Southern Yorke Peninsula...

SYP bowlers back on the greens

“NN”
REPORT BY

After Covid triggered a hiatus in Southern Yorke Peninsula Bowling Association competitions, players were happy to return to the greens on Saturday, January 29.

DIVISION I

There were several close games, including Stansbury's narrow defeat of Edithburgh to hold top spot on the ladder.

Yorketown has remained second, with Edithburgh and Port Vincent making up the top four.

Edithburgh hosted Stansbury; their game was close all day but the blue and whites had a six-shot win, with draws on two of the four rinks.

Curramulka showed it will be a force in shaping the final four, defeating Minlaton by 20 shots after being down by a few at the tea break. The big winner was Rob Tilbrook, who defeated Gav Porter 39-15.

Warooka had a good struggle in the first half of its game at Port Vincent, but the brown and golds came away with a 33-shot victory. Best-performed rink for was host was Rob Marner's, which defeated Allan Gregory 33-13.

DIVISION II

Disappointingly, Port Vincent Black has withdrawn from the competition and Curramulka could not field a side.

This meant there were many players who did not get a game.

If this happens again, maybe the sides without a game could get together and have a practise match for the finals.

AFLW

Adelaide's ruthless destruction of its 2022 opponents continued across the first three quarters of the contest against Melbourne at Norwood on Saturday, January 29. The Crows let the previously undefeated Demons kick three final quarter majors, but remained in control to win by 14 points, 4.11 (35) to 3.3 (21), in oppressive weather.

Chelsea Biddell spent some time minding tri-club high-leaping forward Tayla Harris and was solid again in defence, having seven touches (four kicks and three handballs), taking a mark and laying a pair of tackles.

Rachelle Martin kicked the Crows' fourth goal in the third quarter to cap off a strong performance where she had eight possessions (three kicks and five handballs), took a mark and laid a team-high nine tackles in an outstanding defensive effort.

Earlier in the week Martin accepted a reprimand for rough conduct (dangerous tackle) against West Coast's Dana Hooker during the first quarter on Saturday, January 22.

Hannah Button found her share of the ball with 11 possessions, a mark and seven tackles.

The Crows take on Carlton at Ikon (Princes) Park this Sunday, February 6.

WNBL

Adelaide Lightning wasted a nine-point lead late in the second quarter to be emphatically defeated by the University of Canberra Capitals at The Lights Stadium on Sunday, January 30.

The game was a seesawing contest for a while and had a number of ebbs and flows as the visitors charged away to win by 13 points, 80-67.

After four successive wins, this was the Lightning's first loss in 2022.

Team captain Stephanie Talbot finished with a respectable 11 points, including a pair of three-point bombs, along with four rebounds and eight assists.

SACA men's first grade

There was a serious run fest in the one-day round 10 fixtures on Saturday, January 29.

Sturt's batsmen dominated the Woodville bowlers — Thomas Kelly top scored with a hard hitting 98, which included 11 boundaries and three sixes from 90 deliveries — for a team total of 7/289. Former Kadina footballer Ben Turley sent down 10 overs for the Peckers finishing with 1/54.

In Woodville's unsuccessful run chase, Turley made 35 (46 balls, 67 minutes, 3 x 4s) and Sunbury export Blake Gutsche top scored with 48, including three boundaries and a pair of towering sixes.

Gutsche was dismissed while attempting a second run on the arm of Thomas Kelly. Woodville was all out for 213 and lost by 76 runs West Torrens, at home, defeated Southern Districts by a massive 192 runs.

Both Murphy Short and James Reuther played cameos in the win.

Short faced one ball and was one not out in the Eagles' massive total of 6/389, and claimed 1/12 from four overs.

Teenager Reuther bowled six overs as the first change bowler and finished with 1/24.

SACA men's second grade

West Torrens lost to Southern Districts by 10 runs in an exciting encounter at Park 25.

Lachlan Pointon continued his outstanding season with ball in hand, finishing with the strong figures of 3/18 from 10 overs.

He was showing some form with the willow as well, dispatching two boundaries in his 14 runs from 18 balls, before being given run out.

Callum Agnew failed to trouble the scorers, making a seven-ball duck, his second in succession.

SACA women's second grade

Young leg-spinning all-rounder from Maitland, Mackenzie McCauley, was outstanding in West Torrens' game against Glenelg at Henley High Oval.

After batting first and making 8/156, (McCauley 11), the Eagles bundled the Seahorses out for just 77 runs in 34 overs.

With the ball McCauley finished with the magnificent figures of 4/10 from eight overs, which included three maidens.

She also took a catch in the field and effected a run out in a great all-round performance.

SAILING

Port Vincent Sunday: Results 30-1-22 — Spectators on the top deck enjoyed watching an afternoon of sailing as sailors competed for honours in the fifth race of the Club Championship Series. Conditions on the water were windy and all completed the course in good time except for Both Barrels which had to retire early. Trailer Sailors: 1 Vostok, K. Campion; 2 Amante, A. Slater; 3 Half Fast, G. Hackett; 4 Cripple Creek Ferry, R. Cook; 5 Xtremist; J. Butler. Multihulls: 1 9 Lives, S. Slater; 2 Grinch, A. Van Arend; 3 Curlew, G. Illman. PM

Walleroo Sailing Club: Results 30-1-22 — It was a perfect day on the water, with the Pacers, Optis and Laser all out. Some of our younger sail trainees took boats out on their own, and with some close instruction from Colin Bridgman, were able to practise steering and boat control. All were very successful. Our new participants were on the water under the supervision of a sail trainer and enjoyed the experience. Eight boats, Tasars, Lasers and a Pacer, took to the water for the afternoon racing. Peter Elvard, in his Laser won the wooden paddle for a capsize at the windward mark. The second Laser capsized and retired. A rising wind brought good swells and white caps. The remaining fleet completed the course. Radio control boats: A field of 11 yachts started the fourth handicap race and six finished. Retirements were due to yacht problems or heat. Alan How was the only one to read the weather accurately and started with an A rig, giving him great results in the first three races. The rest of the field changed rigs with varied results. The fourth round of the handicap series was won by Des Westlake. Bob Petts missed out but his handicap will be reduced. Des joins Neville Hank as a back marker with Bob Petts moving to 60 seconds. After four rounds it's a two-horse (yacht) race between Neville Hank and Bevan Atkinson. If you have an interest in sailing, want to try it, or just have some time on a Sunday morning to lend a hand, the Wallaroo Sailing Club welcomes all. Please feel free to drop in at 9.30am and have a chat with our sail training crew. If radio control is your thing, they race Sunday afternoons in the Wallaroo marina. The club is also open for meals on a Friday evening and bookings are recommended. Check out our Facebook page for details. MC

Mr Perry brings experience in politics and journalism, recently working as senior adviser to South Australia's past two Ministers for Primary Industries and Regional Development, as well as a newspaper editor and journalist in regional, SA.

GPSA chairperson Adrian McCabe said Mr Perry's long association with regional SA and agriculture made him an ideal fit for the position.

"Brad has been very close to industry policy and decision-making over a number of years, which means he has a deep understanding of the key issues, from grassroots right through to broader-scale agribusiness and sector-wide issues," Mr McCabe said.

"Through his previous positions, Brad is familiar with the issues facing the grain industry, such as labour shortages and supply chain disruptions as a result of the pandemic.

"These issues have been a strong focus of the GPSA board and Brad will be working through the related policy ahead of the upcoming state and federal elections.

"We are excited to have Brad on board with his wide networks including leaders and decision-makers from politics, industry and not-for-profit organisations."

Mr Perry said he was looking forward to working to develop policy and initiatives which would lead to improved profitability and productivity for South Australian grain growers.

"I am excited about being part of such a professional and well-respected industry organisation," he said.

"My immediate focus will be to finalise and implement GPSA's strategy and priorities for the 2022 state and federal elections.

"The foundations of the grain sector's policy priorities are outlined in the SA Grain Industry Blueprint, which has a target of lifting the industry's value to $6 billion by 2030.

"Working closely with the South Australian grain sector, it is important to deliver on the targets outlined in the blueprint and assist grain growers to realise untapped opportunities.

"It has been a challenging

NEW ROLE... Policy and communications expert Brad Perry has been appointed CEO of Grain Producers SA.

period with farmers facing restrictions due to Covid-19, severe weather events and loss of market access, and now more than ever, it is crucial to provide strong advocacy and leadership to keep the grain supply chain moving.

"Having been involved in efforts to lift the moratorium on growing genetically modified food crops in South Australia, I believe there is much work to be done in attracting further research and development in this area.

"Competing in a global marketplace, grain growers are always looking at ways to become more efficient and that's where the adoption of technology on-farm can assist.

"This is another area of opportunity for South Australian grain growers outlined in the Grain Industry Blueprint.

"I look forward to engaging with grain growers across the state to hear about the current state of play and the opportunities and challenges before them."

Starscopes

♈ ARIES—March 21-April 20
The accent is on delegating work to trusted individuals. A far out scheme may be implemented by the weekend. Avoid taking sides in a domestic feud. The financial picture is less murky.

♉ TAURUS—April 21-May 22
You finally have easy access to a hard to reach person. A friend shows affection in unusual ways. A relative may require your support over a health matter.

♊ GEMINI—May 23-June 21
If decorating or designing, simplicity is the key. Your motto this week is "less is more". Weekend plans may go awry. At work, you gain respect and prestige.

♋ CANCER—June 22-July 22
The emphasis this week is on upgrading skills and learning new technologies. On the romantic elevator, you exit at the up level. At work, you are nominated to keep the peace.

♌ LEO—July 23-August 22
The forecast is a sunny one for romantic endeavours. Snags in communications may make it difficult for your message to be fully grasped. Creative interests are highlighted.

♍ VIRGO—August 23-September 22
A career related inconvenience may prove a blessing in disguise. The home environment becomes a beehive of activity. It's easy for expenses to soar but a financial news brightener may arrive by Friday.

♎ LIBRA—September 23-October 22
Influential people can help your career. The key is to make your request at an opportune time. Small animals figure in the picture. You may be looking after or even contemplating adopting a pet.

♏ SCORPIO—October 23-November 21
Originality is the current keyword, at home and at the workplace. Your partner may surprise you with a rebellious streak. An important project is concluded ahead of schedule.

♐ SAGITTARIUS—November 22-December 22
Renewed energy means that you are closer to achieving a major goal. A career bonus may be in the offering. Money news is encouraging. Making logical decisions is a current skill.

♑ CAPRICORN—December 23-January 20
Spontaneity is essential in personal relationships. Watch a tendency to volunteer for unknown assignments. Your work may offer new challenges and a willingness to try keeps you young.

♒ AQUARIUS—January 21-February 19
Surroundings become more comfortable, even luxurious. Shopping trips can include some bargains, but check guarantees and other related documents. A real estate matter may be stalemated.

♓ PISCES—February 20-March 20
You dream up a wealth of novel ideas. Some are off beat, but there are more hits than misses. Take a more active interest in your financial affairs.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
You are ruled by the heart and are a born romantic. You are a natural entertainer too. You sometimes have difficulty sorting priorities, an exercise that may be especially important in the future. With methodical planning, you may reach a major financial goal.

Strap in for a special season of Survivor

EPISODE 1 of Australian Survivor: Blood V Water premiered in style last night (Monday, January 31).

Season seven of the Channel 10 sensation features several big names, including season two power couple Sam Gash and Mark Wales, two-time US Survivor winner Sandra Diaz and daughter Nina, as well as former NRL footballer Michael Crocker and his sister-in-law Chrissy.

But easily the most noteworthy contestants in the game this year are my cousins Jesse and Jordie Hansen (no bias in this take whatsoever).

Jesse, triathlete; and Jordie, part-time landscaper, full-time larrikin, were split into teams Blood and Water like the rest of the contestants in a huge shock straight off the bat.

The boys were the first to compete in a reward challenge, going head-to-head in a water-style tug-o-war.

Big bro got the chocolates early, but when Water succumbed in the Immunity Challenge, Jordie had to quickly find his place in the tribe which had to vote off a member straight away.

To the surprise of nobody in my household, he had plenty to say at the first tribal council — luckily not too much as he joined in on a vast majority vote.

Expect plenty more shenanigans from tribe clown Jordie — here's hoping they don't get him voted off.

Unfortunately for Strava king Jesse, he's being forced to eat rice for breakfast, rather than kilometres which he much prefers to chew on daily.

MAKING WAVES... Jordie and Jesse Hansen will keep you glued to the screen during Australian Survivor: Blood V Water this year.

However far the lads make it this year, they'll be sure to keep you on the edge of your seat, as well as the other 22 contestants.

P.S. Can everyone please stop asking me for SportsBet tips — the boys keep palming me off to their manager every time I ask!

#Throwback

This day in history

February 1, 2020: The United Kingdom formally left the European Union, more than three years after the country voted for Brexit.

February 1, 1961: The American film drama The Misfits, which was directed by John Huston, had its world premiere; it was perhaps best remembered as the final movie of Marilyn Monroe and Clark Gable.

What's been Trending

Rafa still kicking: Rafael Nadal comes back from a two-set deficit to defeat world number two Daniil Medvedev in the tennis Australian Open men's singles final. The triumph set Nadal one major title clear of Roger Federer and Novak Djokovic as the all-time leader.

HOT FISHING TIPS

with Greg James www.gregjamesfishing.com.au

Welcome to the column with all the hot tips for fishing around Yorke Peninsula; contact Greg by email at greg@gregjamesfishing.com.au.
Wallaroo: The weather was warm for the last weekend of the summer school holidays, with Sunday being the standout day fishing-wise. Blue swimmer crabs, gar and small squid were caught by boat crews fishing far and wide from the Riley Shoals, The Magazine and Bird Reef. One grain ship is anchored off the coast as the jetty enjoys a run of squid, blueys and tommy ruff (Australian herring).
Moonta Bay/Port Hughes: Large numbers of anglers made the most of the weekend's good weather to fish long and hard for blueys, squid and garfish from both jetties. Local beaches are worth a try for yellowfin whiting on the high tides, while boat crews have reported gar, blueys, squid and whiting from West Light and Warburto Point.
Point Turton: A school of rat kingfish made for a couple of fun hook-ups at the jetty last week as they hunted gar and sprat tommy ruff. Boat crews tried for King George whiting at The Banks and out from The Pines. A couple of red nannygai were caught about 2km west of the Corny Point lighthouse midweek. Snook are cruising the shallows of Hardwicke Bay at the moment.

Marion Bay/Stenhouse Bay: Both jetties have night-time snook, tommy ruff and squid. Gar are in the bays around Penguin and Yorke Points. Shore-based fishing has salmon trout and flathead being targeted at Hillocks Beach and Foul Bay.
Edithburgh/Stansbury: Catches of tommyies are hit and miss from the jetties here, but a few blueys and larger salmon are also about. Coobowie and Port Giles have gar and squid and KG whiting can be caught from the northern end of Tapley Shoals.
Black Point/Ardrossan: Garfish, blueys and squid came from several local drops off Black Point and Ardrossan in the past week. Rakers again worked the shallows at Billy Goat Flat, Pavy Gully and Tiddy Widdy Beach. Ardrossan jetty has a few blue crabs, while the wharf at Pine Point is worth a try for yellowfin whiting.
